Last weekend in the homily, I brought up the devotion to Mary, Undoer (or Untier) of Knots. This devotion is about 300 years old, but has become more widely known because it is a favorite of Pope Francis. Pope Francis has said that through Mary, "All the knots of our heart, every knot of our conscience can be undone."

Unlike many other Marian devotions, the devotion to Mary, Undoer of Knots did not come about through an apparition, but through her intercession! Here's the history:

German Nobleman Wolfgang Langenmantel and his wife, Sophie, had marital problems and were on the brink of a divorce. Wolfgang was very distraught, and went to Jesuit priest Fr. Jakob Rem for counseling.

The two prayed together to the Blessed Virgin Mary for Wolfgang's marriage each time they met. While meeting for the last time on Sept. 28th, 1615, Wolfgang provided Fr. Rem with his wedding ribbon, which was used during his wedding ceremony to tie the couple together as a symbol of unity.

Fr. Rem then took the ribbon, lifted it up next to an image of Our Lady of the Snows, and asked Mary if she would "untie the knots" of Wolfgang's marriage. The ribbon then loosened, completely untied, and became extremely white.

Even though precise details were not given, Wolfgang and Sophie reconciled after this happened.

Interestingly, referring to Mary as an untier of knots goes back to St. Irenaeus, in the second century. St. Irenaeus said, "The knot of Eve's disobedience was untied by the obedience of Mary; what the virgin Eve bound by her unbelief, the Virgin Mary loosened by her faith."

If there are knots in your life that may seem impossible to undo, perhaps pray a novena to Mary, the Undoer of Knots, beginning on August 6 and leading up to the Solemnity of the Assumption on August 15. There are copies of the Novena prayers at the church entrance.

Father Mark
