SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

Catholics are encouraged to make a Spiritual Communion. Spiritual Communion is the desiring of Jesus Christ to enter our heart when we are unable for various reasons to receive actual Holy Communion. Pope Francis has urged Catholics to perform Spiritual Communion during the COVID-19 pandemic. This practice was established in the Church for centuries and recommended by several saints.

Act of Spiritual Communion

St. Alphonsus Liguori

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally,
come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.
Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

Prayers to Our Lady of Perpetual Help

Mother of Perpetual Help, today we face so many difficulties. Your picture tells us so much about you. It reminds us to reach out and help those in need. Help us understand that our lives belong to others as much as they belong to us.

Mother of Perpetual Help, you have been blessed and favored by God. You became not only the Mother of the Redeemer, but Mother of the redeemed as well. We come to you today as your loving children. Watch over us and take care of us. As you held the child Jesus in your loving arms, so take us in your arms. Be a mother ready at every moment to help us. For God who is mighty has done great things for you, and God's mercy is from age to age on those who love God. Intercede for us, dear Mother, in obtaining pardon for our sins, love for Jesus, final perseverance, and the grace always to call upon you, Mother of Perpetual Help.

NOVENA TO OUR LADY OF PERPETUAL HELP

O Mother of Perpetual Help, grant that I may ever invoke thy most powerful name, which is the safeguard of the living and the salvation of the dying. O purest Mary, O sweetest Mary, let thy name henceforth be ever on my lips. Delay not, O Blessed Lady, to help me, whenever I call on thee; for, in all my temptations, in all my needs, I shall never cease to call on thee, ever repeating thy sacred name, Mary, Mary.

O what consolation, what sweetness, what confidence, what emotion, fill my soul when I utter thy sacred name, or even only think of thee. I thank the Lord for having given thee, for my good so sweet, so powerful, so lovely a name. But I will not be content with merely uttering thy name. Let my love for thee prompt me ever to hail thee, Mother of Perpetual Help. (Recite 3 Hail Mary's)

Who is Jesus to You?

POWER AND AUTHORITY

I'm sorry that this will seem too "academic" and perhaps even "pedantic," but it's what I have to offer, right now.

There are two Greek words that are of importance this weekend (even though only one features in the Scriptures for Mass): dynamis and exousia: "power" and "authority." The latter word has special meaning in this weekend's Gospel excerpt. We need to see their inter-relationship.

Clearly, Jesus had the "power"—He exorcised demons and healed the sick. This was overt, observable by all, and without doubt. The real question was (and is) where the power came from: in other words, we need to know (as He was asked by the chief priests, scribes, and elders, after He cleansed the Temple) "By what authority are you doing these things?" Perhaps a clearer translation of this phrase and its use of exousia for us would be "What/Who gives you the right to do these things?" This is critical: the power is undeniable; the issue is its source.

Jesus had a tendency to play "fast and loose" with Sabbath prescriptions ("The Son of Man is lord even over the Sabbath"), and for observant Jews this was a serious problem. So: what if His "power" comes from the "authority" of Satan, for the purposes of leading people astray from fidelity to Torah and God? Jesus was accused of this, as we know, and the charge was not dismissive or mean-spirited; folks needed to know. Of course, Jesus' reply to this charge is really brilliant (read Mark 3:20-27). He is effectively saying that even if this is the case, it's still Good News for you—the realm of the prince of demons is experiencing civil war, and his realm will fall! "But if it is by the finger of God..." (Luke 11:20).

This is Jesus' healing "authority," but He also has explicitly teaching authority. In our context this means that He doesn't bother to quote the precedents of previous rabbis in debating an issue—He declares on His own what is right and true (re-read Matthew 5:21-48, the so-called "Six Antitheses"), going so far as, if not correcting, at least expanding Torah. Who does He think He is—God??

That's for us to answer. "By what authority" is just a re-wording of the central question of St Mark's Gospel: "Who do you say that I am?" Remember—the answer to this question must be lived, not simply mouthed. Lent is coming—it will be the perfect time to reflect for ourselves our own personal, consequential response. Who do we say that He is? What difference does it make in our lives?

Fr. David

"Since all our love for God is ultimately a response to His love for us, we can never love Him in the same way He loves us, namely, gratuitously. Since we are fundamentally dependent on God and in His debt for our creation and redemption, our love is always owed to Him, a duty, a response to His love. But we can love our neighbor in the same way that He loves us, gratuitously—not because of anything the neighbor has done for us or because of anything that we owe him, but simply because love has been freely given to us. We thereby greatly please the Father."
