

Thirteenth Sunday of Ordinary Time

MT 10:37-42

Jesus said to his apostles:

“Whoever loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me,

and whoever loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me;

and whoever does not take up his cross and follow after me is not worthy of me.

Whoever finds his life will lose it,

and whoever loses his life for my sake will find it.

"Whoever receives you receives me,

and whoever receives me receives the one who sent me.

Whoever receives a prophet because he is a prophet

will receive a prophet's reward,

and whoever receives a righteous man

because he is a righteous man will receive a righteous man's reward.

And whoever gives only a cup of cold water

to one of these little ones to drink

because the little one is a disciple—

amen, I say to you, he will surely not lose his reward.”

DO NOT FEAR

Stanley Francis Rother was born in Oklahoma. He recognized a priestly vocation in his teens, but after five years in the seminary he was turned away. His bishop believed the best priests are not necessarily the intellectuals, but the most committed, so he enrolled Stan in another seminary where the young man studied diligently. After ordination in 1963, Father Rother served five years in parishes before volunteering for mission work in western Guatemala. He ministered to people's spiritual needs, learned the Tzutuhil language, and taught people to read, write, and do basic math. He built a small hospital. Right-wing elites and the military ruled Guatemala. They blamed the Church for "civil unrest." In 1981 beatings, tortures, and murders escalated. Yet Father Rother stayed because he believed Jesus' words, "Do not be afraid of those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul" (Matthew 10:28). He was shot by a death squad. His body lies in Oklahoma, but his heart is buried among the Tzutuhil people.

NO TENGAN MIEDO

Stanley Francis Rother nació en Oklahoma. Reconoció ya desde la adolescencia su llamado al sacerdocio, pero después de cinco años en el seminario lo despidieron. Mas, su obispo creía que los mejores sacerdotes no eran necesariamente los intelectuales, sino los comprometidos, por eso matriculó a Stan en otro seminario donde el joven estudió diligentemente. Después de su ordenación en 1963 el padre Rother sirvió cinco años en parroquias antes de ofrecerse para una misión en la región occidental de Guatemala. Allí atendió las necesidades espirituales de la gente, aprendió el idioma Tzutuhil, y enseñó a leer y escribir, y también una matemática básica. Construyó además un hospital pequeño. La élite derechista y los militares que gobernaban Guatemala culpaban a la Iglesia por los "disturbios civiles". En 1981 las golpizas, las torturas y los asesinatos escalaron. Con todo y eso el padre Rother se quedó porque creía en las palabras de Jesús: "No teman a los que sólo pueden matar el cuerpo, pero no el alma" (Mateo 10:28). Fue asesinado por un escuadrón de la muerte y su cuerpo yace en Oklahoma, pero su corazón fue enterrado en el pueblo de Tzutuhil.
