

Eighteenth Sunday of Ordinary Time

MT 14:13-21

When Jesus heard of the death of John the Baptist, he withdrew in a boat to a deserted place by himself. The crowds heard of this and followed him on foot from their towns. When he disembarked and saw the vast crowd, his heart was moved with pity for them, and he cured their sick. When it was evening, the disciples approached him and said, “This is a deserted place and it is already late; dismiss the crowds so that they can go to the villages and buy food for themselves.” Jesus said to them, “There is no need for them to go away; give them some food yourselves.” But they said to him, “Five loaves and two fish are all we have here.” Then he said, “Bring them here to me,” and he ordered the crowds to sit down on the grass. Taking the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, he said the blessing, broke the loaves, and gave them to the disciples, who in turn gave them to the crowds. They all ate and were satisfied, and they picked up the fragments left over—twelve wicker baskets full. Those who ate were about five thousand men, not counting women and children.

OUR MISSION | NUESTRA MISIÓN

Come, grow with us in Faith, Hope and Love. We, the parishioners of San Felipe Parish, celebrate the Eucharist by welcoming and serving everyone. Sharing our talents, nourishing, learning and initiating the Paschal Mystery of Christ experience to others.

Ven, crece con nosotros en Fe, Esperanza y Amor. Nosotros los feligreses de la parroquia de San Felipe, celebramos la Eucaristía acogiendo y sirviendo a todos. Compartiendo nuestros talentos, fomentando y aprendiendo e iniciando a otros en la experiencia del Misterio Pascual de Cristo.

WHAT DO YOU WANT? WHAT DO YOU NEED?

Seattle resident Alex Martin made a dress. She washed it frequently, wore it with different accessories, and hardly anyone noticed that she had it on every day for a whole year. Martin was protesting over-consumption and the intensive marketing that pushes us to buy “stuff.” Most of us aren’t going to stop shopping, but we could ask ourselves why we focus so much on outward appearance. Do we give equal attention to our inner self? In today’s first reading Solomon could have prayed for more riches, the defeat of his enemies, or long life. Instead, he asks for a heart that knows right from wrong in order to fulfill his kingly responsibilities. God grants him wisdom, and he uses the gift for the good of all. Perhaps you dream of winning the lottery or making a fortune. Pray, rather, for the inner gifts you need to help build the kingdom of God.

¿QUÉ QUIERES? O ¿QUÉ NECESITAS?

Alex Martín, una residente de Seattle, se hizo un vestido. Lo lavaba frecuentemente y lo usaba con diferentes accesorios, y casi nadie notaba que era el mismo vestido que se ponía todos los días. Así lo hizo durante un año entero. El propósito de Martín era protestar contra el consumo excesivo y la intensa mercadotecnia que nos empuja a comprar “cosas”. La mayoría de nosotros no vamos a dejar de comprar del todo, pero sí podríamos preguntarnos por qué ponemos tanta atención a nuestra apariencia física. ¿Le damos la misma atención a nuestra belleza interior? En la primera lectura de hoy Salomón hubiera podido pedirle más riquezas, la derrota de sus enemigos o una larga vida. Pero en lugar de eso él pidió una sabiduría de corazón que le indicara lo que es correcto y lo que está mal, a fin de poder cumplir sus responsabilidades de rey. Dios le concede la sabiduría y Salomón la usa para beneficio de todos en vez de su propio beneficio. Tal vez sueñes con ganarte la lotería o hacer una fortuna. Ora mejor para que se te concedan los dones necesarios para ayudar a construir el reino de Dios.
