Nineteenth Sunday of Ordinary Time
MT 14:22-33

After he had fed the people, Jesus made the disciples get into a boat and precede him to the other side,
while he dismissed the crowds.
After doing so, he went up on the mountain by himself to pray.
When it was evening he was there alone.
Meanwhile the boat, already a few miles offshore, was being tossed about by the waves, for the wind was against it.
During the fourth watch of the night,
he came toward them walking on the sea.
When the disciples saw him walking on the sea they were terrified.
"It is a ghost," they said, and they cried out in fear.
At once Jesus spoke to them, "Take courage, it is I; do not be afraid."
Peter said to him in reply,
"Lord, if it is you, command me to come to you on the water."
He said, "Come."
Peter got out of the boat and began to walk on the water toward Jesus.
But when he saw how strong the wind was he became frightened;
and, beginning to sink, he cried out, "Lord, save me!"
Immediately Jesus stretched out his hand and caught Peter, and said to him, "O you of little faith, why did you doubt?"
After they got into the boat, the wind died down.
Those who were in the boat did him homage, saying,
"Truly, you are the Son of God."

18th Sunday in Ordinary Time
Taking the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, he said the blessing, broke the loaves, and gave them to the disciples, who in turn gave them to the crowds.
Matthew 14:19

18° Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario
"Tomó los cinco panes y los dos pescados, levantó los ojos al cielo, pronunció la bendición, partió los panes y los entregó a los discípulos. Y los discípulos los daban a la gente."
Mateo 14, 19

HIDDEN IN PLAIN SIGHT

A crowd gathers to hear Jesus, "about five thousand men, not counting women and children" (Matthew 14:21). Jesus' feeding of such a large gathering with only five small loaves and two fish is a true miracle. It is not a magic trick to impress or fool us. Jesus is using signs and symbols to get our attention. Signs and symbols play a vital role in all human culture, but they vary in meaning from place to place: a handshake, a bow, an embrace, or a hug can have many meanings. Jesus' feeding the crowd is a sign of his power and a symbol of the Eucharist we now share. But remember the phrase "not counting women and children." Who does "not count" among the crowd in the community of faith? How can we feed the hidden ones who are starving—for attention, a kind word, a helping hand? What can we do to make a difference?

OCULTOS Y A SIMPLE VISTA

Una muchedumbre se congregó para escuchar a Jesús hablar y se nos dice que habían "eran unos cinco mil hombres, sin contar mujeres y niños" (Mateo 14:21). Darle de comer a esa cantidad tan grande de personas con sólo cinco panes y dos peces es un verdadero milagro de Jesús. No es un truco ni una magia para impresionarnos o engañarnos. Jesús utiliza signos y símbolos para llamar nuestra atención. Los signos y los símbolos juegan un papel vital en toda cultura humana, pero su significado varía según el lugar: dar la mano, una inclinación de cabeza o un abrazo pueden tener muchos y diferentes significados. Darle de comer a toda esa gente es un signo del poder de Jesús y un símbolo de la Eucaristía que ahora compartimos. Pero recordemos la frase de "sin contar a las mujeres y a los niños". ¿Quiénes "no cuentan" en nuestra comunidad de fe? ¿Cómo podemos alimentar a aquellas personas que permanecen ocultas y que tienen hambre de atención, de una palabra cariñosa o de una mano amiga? ¿Qué podemos hacer para aliviar tales situaciones?
