

Fifth Sunday of Lent

Jn 11:3-7, 17, 20-27, 33b-45

The sisters of Lazarus sent word to Jesus, saying, "Master, the one you love is ill."

When Jesus heard this he said, "This illness is not to end in death, but is for the glory of God, that the Son of God may be glorified through it." Now Jesus loved Martha and her sister and Lazarus.

So when he heard that he was ill, he remained for two days in the place where he was.

Then after this he said to his disciples, "Let us go back to Judea."

When Jesus arrived, he found that Lazarus had already been in the tomb for four days.

When Martha heard that Jesus was coming, she went to meet him;

but Mary sat at home.

Martha said to Jesus,

"Lord, if you had been here,

my brother would not have died.

But even now I know that whatever you ask of God,

God will give you."

Jesus said to her,

"Your brother will rise."

Martha said,

"I know he will rise,

in the resurrection on the last day."

Jesus told her,

"I am the resurrection and the life;

whoever believes in me, even if he dies, will live,

and everyone who lives and believes in me will never die.

Do you believe this?"

She said to him, "Yes, Lord.

I have come to believe that you are the Christ,

the Son of God,

the one who is coming into the world."

He became perturbed and deeply troubled, and said,

"Where have you laid him?"

They said to him, "Sir, come and see."

And Jesus wept.

So the Jews said, "See how he loved him."

But some of them said,

"Could not the one who opened the eyes of the blind man have done something so that this man would not have died?"

So Jesus, perturbed again, came to the tomb.

It was a cave, and a stone lay across it.

Jesus said, "Take away the stone."

Martha, the dead man's sister, said to him,

"Lord, by now there will be a stench;

he has been dead for four days."

Jesus said to her,

"Did I not tell you that if you believe you will see the glory of God?"

So they took away the stone.

And Jesus raised his eyes and said,

"Father, I thank you for hearing me.

I know that you always hear me;

but because of the crowd here I have said this, that they may believe that you sent me."

And when he had said this,

He cried out in a loud voice,

"Lazarus, come out!"

The dead man came out,

tied hand and foot with burial bands,

and his face was wrapped in a cloth.

So Jesus said to them,

"Untie him and let him go."

Now many of the Jews who had come to Mary and seen what he had done began to believe in him.

INTO THE LIGHT OF CHRIST

We all know the pain and weight of a dark, shameful secret. If we can tell someone, the release is enormous. Saint Paul says that even when we are “dead in our transgressions” we can be “brought . . . to life with Christ” (Ephesians 2:5). Mary Ann McNeil helps burdened people to find the light of Christ. She is the founder of PATH in Atlanta, Georgia, serving people grieving an abortion. Mary Ann knows the steep price they have paid. Some have blamed themselves for decades, convinced they are unforgiveable, or have fallen prey to depression, physical illness, or risky behaviors. Mary Ann and her trained volunteers provide carefully designed mentoring, prayer, scripture study, and sharing. This enables people who are suffering to know they are accepted and forgiven. They can rise up with renewed faith and strength to embrace their lost children in the light of Christ. The light of Christ brings life that can even raise us from the dead.

A LA LUZ DE CRISTO

Todos conocemos el dolor y la carga de un secreto vergonzoso. Si lo podemos compartir con alguien, el alivio es enorme. San Pablo dice que aun cuando estamos “muertos por nuestros pecados” podemos recuperar “la vida con Cristo y en Cristo” (Efesios 2:5). Mary Ann McNeil ayuda a las personas agobiadas a encontrar la luz de Cristo. Ella es la fundadora de un ministerio en Atlanta, Georgia llamado PATH, que presta sus servicios a las personas apesadumbradas por un aborto. Mary Ann sabe el precio tan alto que han pagado. Algunas de ellas se han culpado a sí mismas por décadas, convencidas de que son imperdonables, o han caído presas de la depresión, de una enfermedad física o de comportamientos riesgosos. Mary Ann y sus ayudantes voluntarios están entrenados para proporcionar consejería, oración, estudios bíblicos y la oportunidad de compartir en grupos. Esto permite a las personas sufrientes saber que son aceptadas y perdonadas. Pueden renacer con una fe y fortaleza renovadas para abrazar, a la luz de Cristo, a sus hijos e hijas que han perdido. La luz de Cristo puede devolvernos de la muerte a la vida.
