

Trying to raise holy kids is hard.

Trying to raise holy kids during a pandemic -
Even harder.

Fortunately, there are lots of resources to help!

Here are a few favorites:

For Adults:

Ascension Presents on YouTube – Many of the videos are by Fr. Mike Schmitz, who is the presenter of the Baptism Series: <https://www.youtube.com/c/AscensionPresents/videos>

Word on Fire – Bishop Robert Barron presents the Faith in an easy to access way: <https://www.wordonfire.org/>

Godsplaining – A podcast about Catholic life from the Dominican Friars: <https://opeast.org/godsplaining/>

For Use with Kids:

Project Nazareth (free in the Archdiocese of Boston with the code “Holy Family”) – this website has basic prayers to teach your children as well as age appropriate content (for both older and younger kids) designed to correspond to the Mass readings each weekend: <https://www.evangelizeboston.com/pages/projectnazareth>

Brother Francis (children’s video series): <https://www.youtube.com/user/brotherfrancisonline>

Catholic Mom - Lessons, Recipes, Podcasts, Blogs, Liturgical Living, and everything in between: <https://www.catholicmom.com/resources>
