

Wednesday, January 20, 2021

Dear St. Stephen families,

We are ready to come back to school on Monday, January 25th! Just in time for Catholic Schools Week. We will celebrate this week with a theme for each day.

- Monday: Patriotic Day; jean day for technology ($1) with a patriotic top, or red, white, and blue.
- Tuesday: Team Spirit Day; gym pants on bottom, sports team on top (or gym uniform)
- Wednesday*: Uniform, but may wear St. Stephen (only) spirit wear on top.
- Thursday: International Day, free jean day, with top that represents your heritage. (Polish, Italian, Irish...)
- Friday: Comfy/Cozy Day, students can bring comfortable pajama bottoms, sweats, slippers. NO yoga pants or leggings. Spirit wear on top.

Wednesday, there will be a crew here filming our teachers and some of the classrooms. We ask that the students be in uniform on this day. Students can wear St. Stephen spirit wear on Wednesday. Friday, we will have movies in the afternoon. Popcorn and water will be provided.

Mark your calendars. Monday, February 8th there will be no school for the students. Archbishop Vigneron will be holding his postponed catechetical day for the faculty and staff within the Archdiocese. This day usually happens at the beginning of the school year, but because it is an unusual year, they rescheduled it.

As always, stay healthy and God Bless!

Mrs. Christine Vaughan
