

Monday
Memorial of St. Vincent DePaul, priest
September 27, 2021

26th Week in Ordinary Time
9 am Live-Streamed Mass

Good Morning! Welcome!

Welcome to all who gather from those in our online community to all of you here in the worship space of St. Joseph's Church. Our spiritual connection remains strong as God pours out abundant grace upon each one of us.

We celebrate the Memorial of St. Vincent DePaul today. The words to the entrance antiphon are: The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, for he has anointed me and sent me to preach the good news to the poor, to heal the broken-hearted. Let us all aspire to follow St. Vincent's example of being Christ for others. (pause) #We Are The Church.

Penitential Act

Lord Jesus, you remember not our sins nor our frailties:
Lord, have mercy.

Christ Jesus, you call us to do what is right and just:
Christ, have mercy.

Lord Jesus, you guide the humble to justice:
Lord, have mercy.

Presider: May almighty God have mercy on us, forgive us our sins and bring us to life everlasting. Amen.

LITURGY OF THE WORD

Lectionary 455

Zec 8:1-8 • Ps 102:16-18, 19-21, 29 and 22-23 • Lk 9:46-50

(OR Lectionary 645: 1 Cor 1:26-31 • Psalm 122 • Mt 9:35-38)

Universal Prayer - Prayer of the Faithful

Deacon or Reader

Priest/Presider

Longing for God's swelling among us, we pray to the Lord who hears every prayer.

For all who await the coming of God's holy city. For the poor and those most in need. We pray to the Lord

For the people of our world; for creative solutions to care for the earth. We pray to the Lord

For those who share the wisdom of many years. We pray to the Lord

For young children at school, at home and at play. We pray to the Lord

For the sick and all in need of healing. We pray to the Lord

For those who await entrance into the heavenly city. For those who grieve the loss of a loved one. (pause) We pray to the Lord

For the prayers we hold in our hearts to be heard. (pause) We pray to the Lord

Priest/Presider

Let us pray.

Return to your city, God of faithfulness, and restore to it the peace of your reign. Give its children freedom to play and its old ones places of honor. Gather your people from east to west so that all humankind may dwell with you for ages upon ages to come. We ask this through Christ, our Lord. Amen +

Tuesday

26th Week in Ordinary Time

Weekday OR St. Wenceslaus OR St. Lawrence Ruiz

September 28, 2021

9 am Live-Streamed Mass

Good Morning! Welcome!

Welcome to all who gather from those in our online community to all of you here in the worship space of St. Joseph's Church. Our spiritual connection remains strong as God pours out abundant grace upon each one of us.

In our Gospel, the disciples wanted to teach a lesson to the obstinate Samaritans. Even as he had set his face to Jerusalem, Jesus recognized how his followers did not understand his heart. The disciples' way of dealing with the issue and the Lord's way differ greatly. May we pray to become more like Christ in our own attitudes toward others. (pause)
#We Are The Church.

Penitential Act

Lord Jesus, you remember not our sins nor our frailties:
Lord, have mercy.

Christ Jesus, your goodness and kindness lift us up:
Christ, have mercy.

Lord Jesus, you guide the humble to justice:
Lord, have mercy.

Presider: May almighty God have mercy on us, forgive us our sins and bring us to life everlasting. Amen.

LITURGY OF THE WORD

Lectionary 456

Zec 8:20-23 • Psalm 87:1b-3,4-5,6-7 • Lk 9:51-56

Universal Prayer - Prayer of the Faithful

Deacon or Reader

Priest/Presider

As living signs of God's salvation, we lift our prayers for the world.

That the Church may welcome all who seek salvation in Christ.

We pray to the Lord

That all who long for your presence may find faith and welcome in our Sister Parishes of Holy Spirit and St. Joseph's.

We pray to the Lord

That all nations may gather in praise before your throne. That the holy city of Jerusalem may at last know peace.

We pray to the Lord

That the sick may discover your healing presence.

We pray to the Lord

That the sick in mind, body or spirit discover your healing presence.

We pray to the Lord

That our beloved dead be gathered into the new and eternal Jerusalem.

We pray to the Lord

That our own prayers we hold in our hearts are heard.

(pause) We pray to the Lord

Priest/Presider

Let us pray.

God of welcome, through your faithful ones your presence calls out, inviting all people to salvation. May our joy and hope draw others to your friendship, and so bring your heavenly city to fullness. We ask this through Christ, our Lord. Amen +

Wednesday

26th Week in Ordinary Time

Feast of Sts. Michael, Gabriel and Raphael, archangels

September 29, 2021

9 am Live-Streamed Mass

Good Morning! Welcome!

Welcome to all who gather from those in our online community to all of you here in the worship space of St. Joseph's Church. Our spiritual connection remains strong as God pours out abundant grace upon each one of us.

Scripture depicts angels as messengers of God and manifestations of God's glory and power. Today we celebrate the three who are named in scripture: Michael, Gabriel and Raphael. How are we the messengers of God's word? Let us be the voice of our great and loving God to others. (pause) #We Are The Church.

Penitential Act

Lord Jesus, you remember not our sins nor our frailties:

Lord, have mercy.

Christ Jesus, your goodness and kindness lift us up:

Christ, have mercy.

Lord Jesus, you guide the humble to justice:

Lord, have mercy.

Presider: May almighty God have mercy on us, forgive us our sins and bring us to life everlasting. Amen.

Gloria

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will.
We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.
Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.
For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen

LITURGY OF THE WORD

Lectionary 647

Dn 7:9–10, 13–14 or Rv 12:7–12a • Ps 138 • Jn 1:47–51

Universal Prayer - Prayer of the Faithful

Deacon or Reader

Priest/Presider

Let us lift our prayers for all who are in need.

That all the baptized may listen for the voices bearing God's message.

We pray to the Lord

That the nations may resist powers that seek to divide humanity. That the oppressed will be enlivened by visions of God's justice.

We pray to the Lord

That all who grow, harvest and bring the bounty of nourishment to us be blessed.

We pray to the Lord

That the sick in mind, body or spirit will be warmed by the light of heavenly glory.

We pray to the Lord

That our beloved dead may behold the greater things of God in the company of the angels.

We pray to the Lord

That the prayers we hold in our hearts are heard.

(pause) We pray to the Lord

Priest/Presider

Let us pray.

Ancient One, though earth burns with division, the fiery glory of your messengers promises a new age of your peace. Open our ears to the angel's song, that we may join their chorus on earth and be counted among the nations and peoples. Through Christ, our Lord. Amen +

Thursday

26th Week in Ordinary Time

Memorial of St. Jerome, priest and doctor of the Church

September 30, 2021

9 am Live-Streamed Mass

Good Morning! Welcome!

Welcome to all who gather from those in our online community to all of you here in the worship space of St. Joseph's Church. Our spiritual connection remains strong as God pours out abundant grace upon each one of us.

The life of the disciples was simple. They ate what they were offered and slept where they were welcomed. Living and sharing the Good News was their first priority. We pray that we can find space in our busy lives to be joyful in the presence of God. We are called to serve. (pause) #We Are The Church.

Penitential Act

Lord Jesus, your teachings offer us an invitation to change:

Lord, have mercy.

Christ Jesus, your goodness and kindness lift us up:

Christ, have mercy.

Lord Jesus, you guide the humble to justice:

Lord, have mercy.

Presider: May almighty God have mercy on us, forgive us our sins and bring us to life everlasting. Amen.

LITURGY OF THE WORD

Lectionary 458

Neh 8:1-4a, 5-6, 7b-12 • Ps 19 • Lk 10:1-12

Universal Prayer - Prayer of the Faithful

Deacon or Reader

Priest/Presider

Called forth to announce the kingdom of God, we lift our prayers for all who long to be in the presence of our Lord.

For the church; for all who are sent to proclaim the Good News to all people.

We pray to the Lord

For those who welcome God's servants and hear God's message.

We pray to the Lord

For leaders of world governments; for those who promote justice in our nation and our world.

We pray to the Lord

For all who are sick. For caregivers, medical professionals, and scientists.

We pray to the Lord

For those who have died. For anyone who grieves the loss of a loved one.

We pray to the Lord

For the prayers we hold in the silence of our hearts.

(pause) We pray to the Lord

Priest/Presider

Let us pray.

Hear our prayers, God of the harvest, and send us forth to announce that your kingdom has come near. May we share your healing grace with the sick and your boundless compassion with the sinner. Grant this through Christ, our Lord – who lives and reigns for ever and ever. Amen +

Friday

26th Week in Ordinary Time

Memorial of St. Therese of the Child Jesus, virgin and doctor of the church

October 1, 2021

9 am Live-Streamed Mass

Good Morning! Welcome!

Welcome to all who gather from those in our online community to all of you here in the worship space of St. Joseph's Church. Our spiritual connection remains strong as God pours out abundant grace upon each one of us.

We celebrate St. Therese of the Child Jesus, today. She is known as 'the little flower'. Her 'little way' is pure Gospel wisdom. We are asked to be childlike in trusting God and offer every action, even the simplest, to God's glory. May we be obedient to God, even when no one is looking.
(pause) #We Are The Church.

Penitential Act

Lord Jesus, your presence brings us comfort: Lord, have mercy.

Christ Jesus, you are our Savior: Christ, have mercy.

Lord Jesus, you are eternal life: Lord, have mercy.

Presider: May almighty God have mercy on us, forgive us our sins and bring us to life everlasting. Amen.

LITURGY OF THE WORD

Lectionary 459

Bar 1:15–22 • Ps 79 • Lk 10:13–16

Universal Prayer - Prayer of the Faithful

Deacon or Reader

Priest/Presider

Ready to live the Good News, we lift our prayers for all who long to be in the presence of our Lord.

That the Church may announce the prophetic message entrusted to it.

We pray to the Lord

That the baptized may heed Christ's call to works of mercy and justice.

We pray to the Lord

That the thunder of war may give way to God's peace and that the cries of the poor may reach those willing to help.

We pray to the Lord

That the abandoned sick and the forgotten elderly may be restored by the service of believers.

We pray to the Lord

That the dead may find mercy on the day of salvation. That those who grieve will find comfort in the presence of the Lord in their hearts.

We pray to the Lord

That the prayers we hold in the silence of our hearts are heard.

(pause) We pray to the Lord

Priest/Presider

Let us pray.

Hear us, God of justice, and wake us from apathy. May the gospel message inspire us to the service of those in need, that our works may give you glory through Christ your Son, who is Lord for ever and ever.

Amen +

Saturday
Memorial of the Holy Guardian Angels
October 2, 2021

26th Week in Ordinary Time
9 am Live-Streamed Mass

Good Morning! Welcome!

Welcome to all who gather from those in our online community to all of you here in the worship space of St. Joseph's Church. Our spiritual connection remains strong as God pours out abundant grace upon each one of us.

As we celebrate the Memorial of the Holy Guardian Angels, we remember that in both Scripture and Tradition we see God bringing us the protection of the angels. God's love is creative. May we have child-like hearts that are open to imagination, surprise and wonder. We ask for light and wisdom to see where and how we can become more like a little child. (pause)
#We Are The Church.

Penitential Act

Lord Jesus, you are meek and humble of heart: Lord, have mercy.

Christ Jesus, you are loving and forgiving: Christ, have mercy.

Lord Jesus, you are eternal life: Lord, have mercy.

Presider: May almighty God have mercy on us, forgive us our sins and bring us to life everlasting. Amen.

LITURGY OF THE WORD

Lectionary 460 and Gospel Lectionary 650

Bar 4:5–12, 27–29 • Ps 69 • Lectionary 650 Mt 18:1–5, 10

Priest/Presider

Sheltered as God's children, let us offer our prayers to the God of love and mercy.

That the Church and its leaders may treasure the most vulnerable among its members. We pray to the Lord

That towns and cities will shield children from danger and violence. That parents and guardians may nurture the young ones in their care with gentle guidance and love. We pray to the Lord

That teachers, coaches and all youth leaders will shepherd young minds and bodies with care. We pray to the Lord

That all who are sick, especially children -- will be well taken care of by caregivers and healthcare workers. We pray to the Lord

That our beloved departed and those forgotten may look upon God's face. That those who grieve will find comfort in the presence of the Lord in their hearts. We pray to the Lord

That the prayers we hold in the silence of our hearts are heard. (pause) We pray to the Lord

Priest/Presider

Let us pray.

Shield of your people, your provident care shelters all who call upon you. Bless and protect the vulnerable ---- and summon the strong to their care, that together we may be counted among the children who look always upon your face. Grant this through Christ, our Lord. Amen +
