Good Morning/Good Afternoon

A warm welcome to all gathered ---- from those in our online community to all of us in the worship space of St. Joseph's Church. As we begin our Catholic Ministries Appeal, we reflect on how we personally live out the Gospel, as members of and servants of the Body of Christ. May we move Forward in Faith, loving one another as Christ loved us. (pause) #We Are The Church

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven,

(bow)

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Priest/Presider

Together, we imagine a better world and ask for God's grace in bringing it to reality, knowing that God's generosity exceeds even our imaginations, and so we pray.

For the Church, that we may have the courage to shine a light on our own faults and failings, excising what causes us to sin. For an increase of the blessings of humility and self-sacrifice as we begin our Catholic Ministries Appeal this weekend.

We pray to the Lord

For our nation, that we may always strive to live up to our ideals, taking special care of those without political or economic power and working for the common good.

We pray to the Lord

That the cries of those whose labor contributes to the wealth of society—but whose wages do not reflect that—may be heard so that all workers receive a just wage that allows them to live decently.

We pray to the Lord

For our planet, that we may exercise loving care for our common home, protecting it from harm and working to ensure its richness for generations to come.

We pray to the Lord

For healing and peace to come to those who are sick in mind, body or spirit. For those suffering from serious illness; to find peace in the presence of loved ones and caregivers.

We pray to the Lord

For our beloved dead, to live in the light of the risen Lord.
For Charles Amalfi, who died recently.

We pray to the Lord

Priest/Presider

God of all blessings, we pray that send down your spirit on us always: to strengthen our faith and increase our humility.
Give us the wisdom to see your hand in the goodness that comes into our lives, into our world, and into our future.
We pray all of this through Christ, our Lord. Amen.

We're pleased to introduce a new small group program this year that the parish has created in the style of ChristLife with teaching videos, worship and praise, and small group discussion. We'll meet on Zoom for a total of 13 every-other Monday night sessions between October and May. The focus is on how we truly embrace the call to love and honor our neighbors, no exceptions. Together we'll learn about Catholic Social Teaching through the lens of Pope Francis and Scripture. Fr. Jim, Deacon Duncan and I are making the teaching videos and writing a guide; Nancy Veronesi and Susan Gividen will lead the music; and Mike Nesbitt will shepherd all of us through the process. To register, go to the parish website and click the button on the homepage. We're really looking forward to this time with all who want to participate - all are welcome!
