It is hard to believe that a year has passed since we lost our dear pastor and friend Msgr. Joseph Ambrosio, my predecessor who I was also privileged to call friend. In the presbyterate, at least in the archdiocese, whenever we have a priest who we consider to be a model priest we often refer to them as a "priest's priest." Msgr. Ambrosio's life and the living out of his priesthood was the very definition of what it means to be a "priest's priest." An unassuming man who walked the path of humility but who also had a sharp wit and great sense of humor. Since I have been chosen to succeed him to continue the great work and legacy he left behind and expand on it, I often ask myself when confronted with an issue or decision "How would monsignor have handled this?" So, as we remember monsignor this weekend, let us learn from the example he left behind of how to live a good and holy life, filled with laughter, caring, hospitality and prayer. May the Lord grant eternal rest to his soul and let us live our lives loving one another and doing God's will in the hope of being reunited with our dear friend in the Father's house.

È difficile credere che sia passato un anno da quando abbiamo perso il nostro caro parroco e amico mons. Giuseppe Ambrosio, il mio predecessore che ho avuto anche il privilegio di chiamare amico. Nel presbiterio, almeno dell'arcidiocesi, ogni volta che abbiamo un sacerdote che consideriamo un sacerdote modello, spesso lo chiamiamo "sacerdote del sacerdote". mons. La vita di Ambrosio e il vivere il suo sacerdozio erano la definizione stessa di cosa significa essere un "sacerdote del sacerdote". Un uomo senza pretese che ha percorso la strada dell'umiltà ma che aveva anche uno spirito acuto e un grande senso dell'umorismo. Dal momento che sono stato scelto per succedergli per continuare il grande lavoro e l'eredità che ha lasciato e ampliarlo, spesso mi chiedo quando mi trovo di fronte a un problema o una decisione "Come avrebbe gestito questo monsignore?" Quindi, mentre ricordiamo monsignore questo fine settimana, impariamo dall'esempio che ha lasciato su come vivere una vita buona e santa, piena di risate, cura, ospitalità e preghiera. Il Signore conceda il riposo eterno alla sua anima e ci permetta di vivere la nostra vita amandoci gli uni gli altri e facendo la volontà di Dio nella speranza di ricongiungerci con il nostro caro amico nella casa del Padre.

Es difícil creer que ha pasado un año desde que perdimos a nuestro querido pastor y amigo Mons. Joseph Ambrosio, mi predecesor a quien también tuve el privilegio de llamar amigo. En el presbiterio, al menos en la arquidiócesis, siempre que tenemos un sacerdote que consideramos un sacerdote modelo, a menudo nos referimos a él como un "sacerdote del sacerdote". Mons. La vida de Ambrosio y vivir su sacerdocio fue la definición misma de lo que significa ser un "sacerdote sacerdote". Un hombre modesto que recorrió el camino de la humildad pero que también tenía un agudo ingenio y un gran sentido del humor. Dado que fui elegido para sucederlo para continuar con el gran trabajo y el legado que dejó y expandirlo, a menudo me pregunto cuando me enfrento a un problema o decisión: "¿Cómo habría manejado esto monseñor?" Entonces, como recordamos a monseñor este fin de semana, aprendamos del ejemplo que dejó atrás de cómo vivir una vida buena y santa, llena de risas, cariño, hospitalidad y oración. Que el Señor le conceda el descanso eterno a su alma y nos permita vivir nuestra vida amándonos unos a otros y haciendo la voluntad de Dios con la esperanza de reunirnos con nuestro querido amigo en la casa del Padre.

THE BARRIERS THAT SEPARATE US

We live in a society that has many technological avenues for stimulation and entertainment, one in which the urban population exceeds the non-urban. It is curious that loneliness is a prevalent malady. It is easy to reach out and touch someone, we are told. But—in truth—it is not all that easy, and statistics from the mental health field will reinforce that opinion. Today's readings are about the ways in which we can authentically reach out: God touches Adam to create a mate and end his solitude; God-in-Jesus takes on human flesh and death in order that we might come to glory; Jesus reaches out to the children whom the disciples had tried to keep away, showing us the manner in which we must approach the loving embrace that awaits us in heaven. Until that day, however, we must remember that ours is a sacramental church, a church of signs of the love of God. And so we are called to reach out continually to ease the loneliness and the barriers that separate us from one another and, therefore, from the love of Christ.
