God would touch you with his healing hand and give you the comfort and peace you need to get through." We ask that you please help us keep our parish family prayer list updated. When we receive a prayer request, the name of the individual in need of our prayers will be printed here in the bulletin for one month. If we are not informed that it is desired they stay on this list longer, their name will be removed. Please pray for all the sick in our families and our communities but especially for:

- Those who are in need: Millie Dietz, Eleanor Bohn, Jeff Pierce, Jordan Tescher, Ken Dahl, Brannon Davidson, Trish Bishop, Joe Michels, a special intention, and for all of our sick parishioners and friends.

Congratulations to Rachel Rising and Owen Makelky who "tied the knot" this past Saturday in Dickinson. May God bless you both!

Due to vandalism at St. John's recently, all three churches will be locked in the evenings until further notice.

Sanctuary of Life...From within the heart of the world, the family has a decisive and determinative relationship with life. As a Sanctuary of life, the family must welcome it, defend it, accompany it during its development, especially during the whole process of its education. The family lovingly bears witness to the uniqueness of new life. The instruction of the Didache, Thou shalt not kill the child in its mother's womb (2,1), incorporated into the living tradition of the Church, must resound even today from the heart of every household. Only God is the Lord of life!" (Cardinal Alfonso Lopez Trujillo, President, Pontifical Council for the Family, Homily to Pontifical Academy for Life, February, 1997).

Stewardship Thought.... The gifts of God that the angel brought to Elijah – food, water, rest and encouragement – were given, not for his own good alone, but to strengthen him for service. How am I using my gifts to serve others? "Love one another as I have loved you...I have chosen you to go forth and bear much fruit." 1 John 15:12, 16

Pre-planning the funeral liturgy—when a family member dies there is only a limited amount of time to plan the liturgy. It can be a difficult time to be thinking about which readings and music should be selected for their funeral. If you choose readings and music before that day, it can make the ceremony more meaningful as well as easier in saying your goodbyes. What readings and music do you like? Would you like a Rosary recited at the Vigil? Would you like others to share memories? These are just some of the items that can be pre-planned for a funeral liturgy. Take the first step to providing peace of mind to you and your loved ones by pre-planning your funeral liturgy. For further information, contact Fr. Dan or the parish office.
