Year of Saint Joseph

Pope Francis' Prayer to Saint Joseph

"Hail, Guardian of the Redeemer,

Spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary. To you God entrusted his only Son; in you Mary placed her trust; with you Christ became man.

Blessed Joseph, to us too,

show yourself a father and guide us in the path of life.

Obtain for us grace, mercy and courage, and defend us from every evil." Amen.

Beginning a new year of our Lord, 2021

Grace in our midst We begin a new year. A.D. 2021. "A.D.", "Anno Domini," is a Latin phrase which means "In the year of our Lord." Thus, two letters serve to remind us that all we are and have and will be is grace -- pure gift from our good and gracious God, each and every day.

It is good to begin 2021 by reflecting on the mystery of God's presence within and around us. Even when we do not place the A.D. before the year as we mark the date on our calendars, calling it to mind will help us to grow as people who are mindful of God's grace in our midst.

This year, let us invite the Holy Spirit to open our minds and hearts, to perceive the reality of God's presence, even when doing so is difficult. We seek God's love, mercy and grace by faith, and see it when we are attentive to the many blessings of our lives, in the gift of family and friends, and in the sense of fulfillment we find in serving others.

God's presence in our lives is a gift, and bears with it responsibility. We who have been given much are called to give much in return, as good stewards of God's grace. Not out of obligation, but out of deep gratitude. When we do this, we give God glory, reflecting the perfect love and gift of our Lord Jesus Christ. What a perfect way to begin a new year, A.D. 2021.

The Year of St. Joseph

Pope Francis has announced that we will mark this year A.D. 2021 as the Year of St. Joseph. In his apostolic letter Patris Corde, the pope invites us to learn from and be inspired by St. Joseph who shows us what it means to desire and follow God's will in our lives.

"The spiritual path that Joseph traces for us is not one that explains, but accepts. Only as a result of this acceptance, this reconciliation, can we begin to glimpse a broader history, a deeper meaning. Joseph is certainly not passively resigned, but courageously and firmly proactive. In our own lives, acceptance and welcome can be an expression of the Holy Spirit's gift of fortitude. Only the Lord can give us the strength needed to accept life as it is, with all its contradictions, frustrations and disappointments.

God always finds a way to save us, provided we show the same creative courage as the carpenter of Nazareth, who was able to turn a problem into a possibility by trusting always in divine providence. If at times God seems not to help us, surely this does not mean that we have been abandoned, but instead are being trusted to plan, to be creative, and to find solutions ourselves.

Just as God told Joseph: "Son of David, do not be afraid!" (Mt 1:20), so he seems to tell us: "Do not be afraid!" We need to set aside all anger and disappointment, and to embrace the way things are, even when they do not turn out as we wish. Not with mere resignation but with hope and courage. In this way, we become open to a deeper meaning. Our lives can be miraculously reborn if we find the courage to live them in accordance with the Gospel." (Patris Corde, December 8, 2020)

We begin this new year still feeling the effects of the Covid crisis, aware of our human frailty and in need of the grace of God at each moment of every day. How will you embrace new life this year with creative courage and reliance on God's providence?

Vaccine Information:

We are adjusting our scheduling tool on our website (currently for health care workers) this week so those 65 years of age and older can start making appointments. Please go to www.phdistrict2.org to make your appointment.

Rosary Mondays

Please join us at 12:30 pm each Monday as we pray the Rosary for an end to the pandemic and the violence in our country. For those who are unable to join us in person we will broadcast on our Facebook Live page. Please consider taking a few minutes at lunch wherever you are to unite in prayer together as a parish community.

The Knights are now collecting aluminum cans. You can deposit them in the trailer in the back behind Founders Hall. Please put only aluminum cans in trailer, not boxes and plastic bags. Thank you.
