FROM THE PASTORS DESK

Christus surrexit! Verre surrexit! Christ has risen, he has truly risen! I wish all of you a most Happy Easter, and pray that the Risen Lord will fill your soul with joy and peace. Remember, there are 50 days of Easter, and it is a festive time. The 40 days of Lent were penitential to prepare us for the Lord's Paschal Mystery (his suffering, death, and resurrection). Now, the next 50 days are when we celebrate his completion of this great work of our salvation with feasting and happiness. But don't take this as an excuse not to pray. We can't fully appreciate what we are celebrating during the 50 days of Easter if we don't stop and pray.

The Velva Community Food Pantry is in need of volunteers willing to be trained in the administrative aspects of the food pantry. The food pantry is a joint effort of Oak Valley Lutheran Church, United Methodist Church, and St. Cecilia in Velva. In order to better serve those in need, and increase the effectiveness of our pantry, a training is scheduled for all volunteers Sunday, April 18 at 1:00pm at Oak Valley. There is no obligation to be a regular volunteer if you attend this training, but the more who attend may help us better distribute the workload, and find ways to more effectively involve volunteers. If you are interested please speak with Andrea Irmen or myself and we can give you information. Thank you!

ANNOUNCEMENTS

SENIOR QUILTING The Quilt Night Presentation is set for Wednesday, May 12, 2021 at Oak Valley Lutheran

SICK/HOMEBOUND: Please let Fr. Kraemer know if you are sick or homebound so he can pray for you and give you the sacraments. If you or one of your loved ones are in the hospital with serious illness you should also request that a priest come to see you.

LILIES GIVEN IN MEMORY of Frank & Rose Hodny, Cyril Kotaska, Janet Washek, Linda Washek/Adams, Barney & Margaret Bischoff, and donations made by Marie Leier.

RICE BOWLS may be returned now. There is a large bowl on the table in the back of the Church to put them in.

BOOKS FOR GIVE AWAY are on the tables in the cloak room of the West entrance. Please help yourselves.

OFFERTORY COLLECTION will begin again after Easter. There are long-handled baskets to use so will only require two people for the collection. Anyone wishing to volunteer, please contact the office.
