MASS INFORMATION

The recently announced provincial re-opening plan means that in-person Masses will not be possible until we enter stage 2, mostly likely sometime in July. Fr. Tom continues to say weekday Masses for us and our intentions. The Sunday 11:00 a.m. Mass will continue to be livestreamed. Mass. Baptisms, funerals and weddings are permitted with 9 attendees. The parish office remains closed to the public. Staff continue to monitor phone calls and emails.

CWL BURSARY

The CWL is sponsoring a $750.00 bursary for a high school student from our parish who will be graduating this year and attending post-secondary studies in the fall of 2021. The application deadline is June 7. Application forms can be found on the parish website. Please complete this form online or download it and mailed the completed form to the CWL Bursary Committee, c/o St. Patrick Parish, 15 Steeple Hill Crescent, Nepean, ON K2R 1G2.

FAITH FORMATION

The Footprints of God is a documentary film series which enables us to meet the people and see the places that shaped the Salvation story through scripture and Church history. This week we will continue our meetings on Thursday, 7:00 - 9:00 p.m., on Zoom to watch Episode 3 – ‘Peter,’ which follows St. Peter from Galilee to Jerusalem to Rome, and shows how this rustic fisherman came to deserve such honour and authority. To register, please contact Sandy Duff at apduffngb@gmail.com. FORMED subscribers are encouraged to follow along online at formed.org, if they cannot attend on Thursday nights; however, you do not need to be a FORMED subscriber to attend. Parishioners are welcome to subscribe (for free) to FORMED by going to formed.org and signing up as parishioners.

REFLECTION

It is this belief that God is Trinity, three in one, that distinguishes the Christian faith from all other beliefs. We believe that God is Father, that Jesus is Son and equal to the Father and is God, and that the Holy Spirit is the Spirit of the Father and the Son and also God. It is a truly challenging belief, and we believe because Jesus taught us to believe. The first reading today is from the Book of Deuteronomy. This passage tells us of the incredible experience of our ancestors in the faith. God spoke to them! This is what you and I receive from our ancestors in the faith: God speaks to His people! Today, not many still believe in such revelation. We believe and because of that belief, we believe in Jesus Christ and in the Spirit. God speaks to us today in His Church and through the Sacraments and in our daily lives through faith.

The second reading is from the Letter to the Romans. We must come to know within ourselves that our faith is a gift of the Spirit, that we can speak of Jesus as our Lord and Savior because of the Spirit within us, that we call God our Father because the Spirit is the pledge of our adoption as children of God, of the Father. These words must become words that speak of the reality that we experience. Today, as we honor Father, Son and Spirit, let us seek to live these mysteries more profoundly in our lives.

Today's Gospel is from Saint Matthew and gives us the formula of Baptism in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Baptism is the wonderful gift of being incorporated into Jesus Christ and into all the mysteries of our faith. Most importantly, it is a proclamation that God is Triune, Three-in-One, that God is in Jesus teaching us about the mysteries of God. - Excerpted from a homily by Abbot Philip, christdesert.org.
