DIOCESAN SYNOD 2021-2023

A synod is major consultation of the universal Church. Pope Francis began this last weekend in Rome and all local dioceses are expected to do the same on October 17. In the Archdiocese of Ottawa-Cornwall, there will be an opening celebration of the Diocesan Synodal Phase, at the 5:00 p.m. Mass, at Notre Dame Cathedral, Ottawa on Sunday, October 17. For more information on the process, please visit the Archdiocesan website (<https://en.archoc.ca/synod-2021-2023>).

PARKING LOT LINE PAINTING

On Monday, October 18, we will be repainting the lines in the parking lot in front of the church and cemetery. We would ask that you refrain from using this parking lot after noon on Monday, until Tuesday morning. The company will not paint if there are cars in the lot, and we would like this work done before winter. Thank you for co-operation.

GOPSEL REFLECTION

Sometimes when we enter difficult seasons of life, we may question (if not abandon) God for at least a time. But these readings describe that pain, shortcomings and sufferings are not outside of God's understanding of our lives. Through His life, death and resurrection, Jesus promises compassion and consolation for our present sufferings and promises us new life. So, as we long for greatness and heavenly rewards, Jesus reminds us alongside James and John that service (with its sufferings) is the way to heaven. There has been plenty of suffering in the past two years for most of us, and as the Body of Christ, we might do especially well to ask God how we can bear it with grace and offer our service to bring relief, compassion, and kindness to a hurting world right now. - Excerpted from cccb.ca

THE DECEASED AND THOSE WHO MOURN THEM

Claire PROVOST, whose funeral was held in our parish on October 15.

"Sickness is a great grace of God; it teaches us what we are; in it we recognize the patient, humble, and mortified man. When sickness weakens and mortifies the body, the soul is better disposed to raise herself up to God."
