Dear Fr. Tom,

You have spoken to me about the new healthy eating program in emphasis at St. Joseph School. I applaud your efforts to ensure healthy meals for all the children and I particularly support making it part of the curriculum. As you and I have discussed, good eating habits have to begin early.

Your association with Avalon Food is a great benefit to the children and families of our school. I understand that the organization is providing nutritionists as well as detailed food data. My children, Paul, Gus, and Ben will definitely learn and grow from this improvement.

As an Emergency Physician, I know firsthand that healthy eating is a prime component of good health and illness prevention. St. Joseph School is remarkable for its pace-setting ways and I fully support this new program.

Sincerely,
