TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Veterans Day began with the signing of a symbolic treaty between the Allies and Germany ending World War I (then called the “Great War”) on the eleventh hour of the eleventh day of the eleventh month. The auspicious date was actually a well-established religious holiday, the feast of Saint Martin of Tours, a beloved soldier saint of the army of Rome. After World War II, Armistice Day was changed to Veterans Day in the United States and Remembrance Day in Britain, but of course the feast of Saint Martin endures.

Martin was named after Mars, the god of war, and against the advice of his parents he went on his own to church. He became a catechumen at the age of ten. By fifteen he was enlisted in the cavalry in France. Coming across a poor man, Martin had an impulse to divide his bright red soldier’s cape and clothe him. He later had the insight that he had served Christ, and the other half of his cape became a lifelong sign to him of his duty to serve the poor. Housed in a tiny church capella or “chapel,” the cape became a great object of pilgrimage on the way to Compostella, and a favored place for the prayers of soldiers. Martin was not so eager to serve as bishop as he had been as a soldier, and legend says that he hid in a barn filled with geese to avoid episcopal election. To this day, the customary meal for November 11 is goose! Traditionally, this is the last feast day before winter closes in, and begins a period of fasting once known as “Saint Martin’s Lent” or “Martinmas,” that later developed into the season of Advent.

A GOOD STORY

Christianity is the story of beggars who tell other beggars where to find bread.

Thank you to our veterans, both present and past who have served our great country. Originally observed as Armistice day, and renamed as Veterans Day in 1954, this day marks the anniversary of the end of WWI, when major hostilities formally ended on the 11th hour of the 11th day of the 11th month of 1918, when the armistice with Germany went into effect. We are grateful to our military members and to their families and our prayers are with them.

BULLETIN INFORMATION

If your group has information you would like in the bulletin, please submit your printed copy to the office at least two weeks before the weekend you would like it to appear. Our due dates for sending the bulletin are early this time of year. For example, to receive our Dec. 23, issue on time requires it be submitted by Dec. 14..
