SAINT TERESA OF JESUS (1515-1582)
October 15
Let nothing disturb you; let nothing frighten you. Gifted with a passionate spirit, young Teresa dreamed of converting Muslims and becoming a martyr. All things are passing; God never changes. But her mother's death when Teresa was fourteen inspired lifelong devotion to Our Lady, and Teresa entered the Carmelites, Mary's order, despite her father's objections and her own fragile health. Patience gains everything. Initially, she enjoyed her lax convent's sociability and "busyness," but mystical prayer and John of the Cross's collaboration inspired her to reform the Carmelites. Whoever has God, lacks nothing. When her ideals encountered resistance and brought suffering, she maintained her peace—and humor. Discovered devouring leftovers, she told her mildly scandalized nuns, "When I fast, I fast! When I eat, I eat!" To nuns demanding less work and more prayer in the convent schedule, she retorted: "What we really need around here are fewer starry eyes and more strong arms!" God alone is enough! The italicized sentences here are her "Breviary Bookmark," the simple, profound prayer of Teresa, the first woman Doctor of the Church.

GOD REVEALED TO THE NATIONS

What wonderful images we have today of the reign of God! Isaiah speaks to us of a great feast—a heavenly feast—a feast of abundance with rich foods and choice wines. It is the Lord’s own affair, Isaiah explains, when God will unite all nations, dry every tear, and destroy death forever. Then, too, will the entire earth rejoice in the Lord and bask in God’s saving grace. Jesus speaks of heaven in terms of a feast as well. Here, the kingdom of heaven is likened to a king’s wedding feast given for his son. This is a feast of abundance also, with the fattened cattle prepared just so. But many of the people invited don’t want to come, so the king invites anyone who would honor his son by their presence there. And Paul tells us that whether we live abundantly or in humble circumstances, we can do all things in the Lord who strengthens us. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

MANY THANKS TO ST. PAT'S VOLUNTEERS

It is with deep appreciation that we express our thanks to all of St. Patrick's volunteers who help with keeping the parish in compliance with diocesan protocols during the coronavirus pandemic. Your willingness to serve in this way is a special gift to our parish. We still need to add volunteers to our list in order to distribute the responsibilities (greeting at Mass and sanitizing after Mass) within a larger group. If you are willing to help, please contact the parish office at 423-2846. God bless all of our volunteers in whatever capacity you serve!

PANDEMIC PROTOCOLS UPDATE

According to Governor Sisolak's televised message of September 29th and Bishop Calvo's subsequent notice to Diocese of Reno pastors, St. Patrick can now open up attendance at Masses to 50 percent of the church's capacity, which, in our parish, would be 80 parishioners and/or guests. While the number of people able to attend each Mass has increased, diocesan protocols remain in place, that is, masks worn, social distancing observed, contact tracing maintained, and hand sanitizers and other safety procedures utilized. Please continue to check St. Patrick's website for further updates.
