ADORATION –Come to Adoration at St. Thomas Aquinas Church from 5pm-8pm Monday and Tuesday. All are welcome and encouraged to adore our Lord. As He Himself asks each of us, “So, could you not watch with Me one hour (Mt 26:40)?” Remember how in need we are of this prayer of adoration: “Why do you sleep? Rise and pray that you may not enter into temptation (Lk 22:46).” Please sign up at the back of the church if you can help with this essential ministry.

PRAYER LINE – We are fortunate enough to have a group of prayer warriors in our parishes. The Prayer Line seeks to help the needs of the community through their prayers. If anyone is in need of prayers, or would like to request an intention be prayed for, please contact the parish office via phone or email. We are most grateful to these faith-filled souls for their prayers. All that is needed is a person’s first name or you may request prayers for a special intention if greater discretion is needed.

PRESENTATION – Prayer does not always come naturally, at least not in its fullest expression. It takes some getting used to. The model and source of our prayer should always be the Mass and the Eucharist. How that is, and seeing the Mass as the Church at prayer, require some deeper understanding on our part. To serve that endeavor, Fr. Martineau will be presenting a series on this very subject starting Wednesday July 7 at 6:30pm. The full schedule and location will be forthcoming. Signups for the first talk will be available at the entrance of the church. All are encouraged to sign up and all invited to attend. The presentations will occur in the basement of St. Paul Church. Those in need of special accommodations for access can let Fr. Martineau know since there are multiple entries to the church hall.

A LASTING GIFT – Would you consider naming your parish as a beneficiary in your will? Your gift will mean that you share in the continued work of preaching the Gospel and assisting those in need. Everyone in the parish family, old and young, are asked to remember your parish in your estate planning. With your help, and God’s abundant grace, we will keep the Church’s mission alive and transform the parish’s future!

From the Moral Reflections on Job by Saint Gregory the Great, pope
(Lib. 10, 47-48; PL 75, 946-947)

“The simplicity of the just man is laughed to scorn. It is the wisdom of this world to conceal the heart with stratagems, to veil one’s thoughts with words to make what is false appear true and what is true appear false. On the other hand it is the wisdom of the just never to pretend anything for show, always to use words to express one’s thoughts, to love the truth as it is and to avoid what is false, to do what is right without reward and to be more willing to put up with evil than to perpetrate it, not to seek revenge for wrong, and to consider as gain any insult for truth’s sake. But this guilelessness is laughed to scorn, for the virtue of innocence is held as foolishness by the wise of this world. Anything that is done out of innocence, they doubtless consider to be stupidity, and whatever truth approves of, in practice is called folly by their worldly wisdom.”

“But sometimes a soul firmly strives for righteousness and yet is beset by men’s ridicule. He does what is admirable but he gets only mockery. He might have gone out of himself because of man’s praise; he returns to himself when repelled by their abuse. Finding no resting-place without, he cleaves more intensely to God within. All his hope is fixed on his Creator, and amid all the ridicule and abuse he invokes his interior witness alone. One who is afflicted in this way grows closer to God the more he turns away from human popularity. He straightway pours himself out in prayer, and, pressured from without, he is refined with a more perfect purity to penetrate what is within.”
