ADORATION – Come to Adoration at St. Thomas Aquinas Church from 5pm-8pm Monday and Tuesday. All are welcome and encouraged to adore our Lord. As He Himself asks each of us, “So, could you not watch with Me one hour (Mt 26:40)?” Remember how in need we are of this prayer of adoration: “Why do you sleep? Rise and pray that you may not enter into temptation (Lk 22:46).” Please sign up at the back of the church if you can help with this essential ministry.

PRESENTATION – Part II of the series on the Mass as the Church’s school of prayer will take place in the hall of St. Paul Church on Thursday July 29 at 6:00pm. The presentation focuses on the development of the Mass, the structure it takes on, and how its ritual leads us to prayer. Those able to sign up ahead of time are kindly asked to do so by Tuesday July 27 so that preparations for refreshments and handouts may occur. Any questions may be directed to the office contacts listed above.

CONGRATULATIONS – With immense joy, we congratulate the newly Mr. & Mrs. Matthew Corrigan on their wedding. Please keep both Matthew and Colette in your prayers as they enter this vocation. May God be always at the center of their relationship and may He bless them with every gift of heavenly grace.

SPECIAL COLLECTION – On July 31 and August 1 we will have a special collection to benefit Abbé Martin Boudreau’s formation for the priesthood with the Institute of Christ the King Sovereign Priest as he returns to seminary formation in August. Since Abbé Boudreau is not part of a diocese, he is responsible for raising money to defray the cost of his education and formation. Donations by check may be made out either to Abbé Boudreau or to St. Paul Parish, which will then send a check from the collected donations. Thank you for your generosity with this special collection.

CONTACT – Some have asked about the cell number listed in the bulletin. It may be used for texting or a call. It is the sole number, apart from the landline office number, which may be shared with people seeking to contact the office or Fr. Martineau. No other numbers are to be shared, even if you have received them from Fr. Martineau in the past. Father is working on consolidating numbers and will be eliminating those other numbers soon. The numbers listed here are the best for contact. Any future calls or messages made to previous numbers will not work. Please keep this in mind going forward. Thank you for your understanding.

VACATION ? – Will you be going away at some point during the summer? Wonderful! Please remember, though, that the parishes are still here when you are gone, continuing in ministry, and ready to welcome your return. While you may find temporary refuge at another parish during your vacation we still need your support, even while you might be enjoying some due time of relaxation. Please remember your weekly offering for the parish before your departure or once you return. Your kind consideration is most appreciated!

A LASTING GIFT – Would you consider naming your parish as a beneficiary in your will? Your gift will mean that you share in the continued work of preaching the Gospel and assisting those in need. Everyone in the parish family, old and young, are asked to remember your parish in your estate planning. With your help, and God’s abundant grace, we will keep the Church’s mission alive and transform the parish’s future!

From a letter to the Magnesians by Saint Ignatius of Antioch, bishop and martyr
(Nn. 6, 1-9, 2: Funk 1, 195-199)

“In the persons I mentioned, I saw and loved in faith your whole community; and so I urge you to strive to do all things in the harmony of God. The bishop is to preside as God’s representative, the presbyters are to perform the rule of the apostolic council, and the deacons, who are so dear to me, are to be entrusted with the service of Jesus Christ, who was with the Father before time began and has now at last manifested himself to us. Follow the ways of God, and have respect for one another; let no one judge his neighbor as the world does, but love one another always in Jesus Christ. Let there be nothing among you that could divide you, but live in accord with the bishop and those who are over you as a sign and a pattern of eternal life.”

“The Lord did nothing either of himself or through his apostles without his Father, with whom he is united; so too, you should undertake nothing without the bishop and the presbyters. Do not attempt to persuade yourselves that what you do on your own account is right and proper, but when you meet together there must be one petition, one prayer, one mind, one hope in love and in holy joy, for Jesus Christ is one and perfect before all else. You must all be quick to come together, as to one temple of God, one altar, to the one Jesus Christ, who came forth from the one Father, while still remaining one with him, and returned to him.”

“Do not be led astray by false doctrines or by old and idle tales. For if we still live by the law, we admit that we have not received grace. But the holy prophets lived according to Jesus Christ, and that is why they were persecuted. They were inspired by his grace to bring full conviction to an unbelieving world that there is one God, manifested now through Jesus Christ his Son, his Word, who came forth from the Father and was in all things pleasing to the one who sent him.”
