Ordinary Time

Fourth Sunday

Called To Be God's Voice

Jesus' own struggle to speak for God began in Nazareth – and like Jeremiah, Jesus was ill-received. Jesus' statement, "no prophet gains acceptance in his native place" proved to be true for him as it has been true for prophets throughout the centuries. The prophet's rejection by his own is simply part of what it means to be a prophet. Jesus has to establish his authority as God's prophet outside Nazareth and outside the circle of family, friends and neighbors.

Today's Bulletin is sponsored in thanksgiving to God.

REFLECTION

Call To A Deeper Level

Last week's gospel stopped short with Jesus' interpretation of the prophetic passage read during the synagogue service. This week we see the shocking reaction of those who heard Jesus' words.

In our moments of fervor we might wholeheartedly answer yes to the word of God, but in reality that yes is seldom uncomplicated. Even those who heard Jesus were first amazed at his words but then later sought to throw him off a cliff. They turned quickly from their initial appreciation of him. Their acceptance was shallow. So many times we behave in ways we wish we would not, or what we want to do we fail to accomplish. In other situations we might stand in awe of others and yet turn against them.

Our motives and our reactions are generally quite complicated, even if our desires to be faithful are straightforward. Despite the struggles that accompany the proclamation of God's word, despite the misunderstanding it might cause, the word of God cannot be silenced. Neither Jeremiah nor Jesus recoiled from the implications of their call, regardless of the resistance they experienced. Instead, they entered even more deeply into the call to love. Lest he brood over his injuries, Jeremiah is reassured of God's protection. And, without aggressively demonstrating his strength when he was threatened with harm, Jesus exhibited patience and kindness. Both men bore and endured their bitter misfortunes. This is the image placed before us as an example for us to follow.

ORIENTATION

No Prophet Is Accepted In His Own Native Place

Why does it seem like no prophet is accepted in his native place? It is indeed easier to accept God's truth from a stranger than from a familiar face? Sometimes our idea of integrity gets in the way. We know a person too well to allow them to speak God's truth authoritatively, because we recall a time when they themselves made mistakes. Who are they to preach? At the same time, God calls all of us to share the Good News of Jesus Christ, the joy and hope of which outshines the imperfections of those who proclaim it. The proclamation of the Good News, through our imperfect lives, words, and deeds, is a testimony to God's grace working in our lives. Familiar prophets, whose pasts make us wonder about their right to preach, are in fact witnesses of God's healing grace, transforming those among us with checkered pasts into witnesses of the Gospel.

LENTEN FISH FRY

Plans are being finalized for the annual Lenten Fish Fry. In the past, some parishioners expressed the wish to help with the Fish Fry but were unable to do so for various reasons. You could help this year by making a monetary donation or by baking a cake(s) for dessert. To help, fill out the form below and drop it in the collection basket or mail slot.
