Ordinary Time
Thirteenth Sunday

Living Out Our Baptism In Christ Jesus

As disciples of Jesus, the cost of discipleship cuts right to the core of our being. Baptism re-creates us as children of God. Through it we are given new life and born into a new family. The bonds of discipleship are now even stronger than the bonds of blood. Lest we think this is too much to ask, we should remember that marriage requires a similar transfer of loyalties from the family of origin to the new family being created in marriage and because of the love they share, a couple is eager to make this transfer. Discipleship of Jesus is no less different. Here, the primary loyalties are directed to the Lord. We live out all other loyalties in the context of the primary relationship with the Lord.

Discipleship requires our very lives.

Today's Bulletin is printed in memory of Lillie & Henry Dornak, sponsored by their family.

Flowers for the Altar this weekend are donated in memory of Evelyn & Frank Darilek sponsored by their family.

REFLECTION

*Whoever welcomes you welcomes me,
and who welcomes me welcomes the One who sent me.*

The theme of hospitality is reflected in today's first reading and the gospel.

With generous gestures of hospitality, the woman welcomed the prophet and even made provisions so that his visits could become more frequent. Her motivation in providing for his needs is clearly expressed: "I know that he is a holy man of God." In other words, to be a man or person of God is to be the bearer of God's word. Therefore, to welcome him is to welcome God's word.

Jesus in sending his disciples looks to those to whom they will be sent to hear the word of God. Hospitality shown to Jesus' disciples means more than making sure they are fed and sheltered. The hospitality Jesus advocates involves the one who welcomes and the welcomed one in a relationship. A connection is made between the hosts ("whoever welcomes you"), disciples, Jesus ("welcomes me") and God ("the One who sent me"). Thus, the four parties are joined together. A new family is formed made up of those who carry out the mission, those who welcome it, and God.

This theme of welcome and hospitality challenges us today. The preacher must first welcome the word and let it be reflected in his word and deed, and the hearer must listen wholly, not selectively, and allow that God's word be spoken through whatever mediator God chooses.

MASS INTENTIONS FOR MOULTON & PRAHA

As you may have noticed, we have changed our Mass schedule in Moulton and Praha as follows:

Weekday Masses: Wednesdays & Fridays, 8 a.m., Moulton
Thursdays, 5:30 p.m., Praha

Weekend Mass: Sundays, 9 a.m., open-air Mass alternating weekends in either Moulton or Praha.

This has resulted in less Masses being celebrated in the week. In order to accommodate the Mass Intentions requested for loved ones and for special intentions, we are combining Mass Intentions and rescheduling them for the next available date. Hopefully, things will get to normal soon.

HAPPY INDEPENDENCE DAY JULY 4, 2020

Independence Day Prayer

God, source of all freedom, this day is bright with the memory of those who declared that life and liberty are your gift to every human being.

Help us to continue the good work begun long ago. Make our vision clear and our will strong, that only in human solidarity will we find liberty, and justice only in the honor that belongs to every life on earth. Turn our hearts toward the family of nations to understand the ways of others, to offer friendship, and to find safety only in common good of all. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.
