Ordinary Time

Fifteenth Sunday

Sharing The Rigors of Ministry

The walking stick, food, sack, money, sandals and tunic can be seen as symbols of a material culture. Jesus' instructions to his disciples were simple; they were to preach repentance, heal people and continue Jesus' battle with the powers of evil. Like the disciples, we are also called by God to witness to truth, justice and goodness. How might my daily work turn into a vocation to continue Jesus' mission?

REFLECTION

Amos 7:12-15 Psalm 85 Ephesians 1:3-14
Mark 6:7-13

We Are Called And Sent

Jesus inaugurated the Kingdom of God on earth. He chose disciples and sent them out to continue the work he had begun, to preach the gospel, and through healings and exorcisms to conquer the forces of evil that threatened that Kingdom. And now we have been called; in him we have been chosen in all of our brokenness and vulnerability. The task to which we have been called is awe-inspiring; and every spiritual blessing in the heavens has been bestowed upon us so that we will be able to accomplish it. If we allow Christ's saving power to take possession of us, we too will further his prophetic ministry. We will bring the saving grace of God to the world that is terrified and that struggles with pain; we will bring it to those places where healing is needed and where demons still hold sway. We will bring all things under the headship of Christ.
