Did you know?

Use concrete visual rules to help children stay safe

Parents in a crowded place, like a playground or store, will often tell their children, “Stay where I can see you.” While the parent understands that this means, “Stay close,” a child does not necessarily understand the limit — when can a parent see or not see them? A clearer direction would be to tell your child, “Stay where you can see me.” This gives them the boundary — they must be able to see you no matter where they go. Now, your child can check in frequently, all while staying in eyesight. For more tips, request the VIRTUS® article “Communication Tip No. 5: Stranger Danger,” at lacatholics.org/did-you-know.

Use reglas visuales concretas para ayudar a los niños a mantenerse seguros

Los padres de familia en un lugar lleno de gente, como un parque infantil o una tienda, a menudo le dicen a sus hijos: “Quédense donde pueda verlos”. Si bien los padres de familia comprenden que esto significa “Manténgase cerca”, un niño no necesariamente comprende el límite: ¿cuándo puede su padre o su madre verlos o no verlos? Una dirección más clara sería decirle a su hijo: “Quédate donde puedas verme”. Esto les da el límite. Ellos deben ver a su padre o a su madre sin importar adónde estén. Ahora, su hijo o hija pueden registrarse con usted con frecuencia, siempre sin perderse de vista. November

Month of the Souls in Purgatory

For November, One Way You Can Help the Souls in Purgatory By: Fr. Ed Broom, OMV

The Month of November starts off with the celebration of the Solemnity of All Saints. The following day, Nov. 2nd, the Church celebrates the Feast of All Souls. This day, the entire Church, the Mystical Body of Christ, remembers in prayer, sacrifice, and suffrages, the souls in Purgatory. This is the specific Liturgical day to remember our deceased brothers and sisters detained in Purgatory.

The Catechism continues explaining in greater detail the name Purgatory, the fundamental difference from Hell, and the Church’s constant teaching on this all-important doctrine in these words:

The Church gives the name Purgatory to this final purification of the elect, which is entirely different from the punishment of the damned. The Church formulated her doctrine of faith in Purgatory especially at the Councils of Florence and Trent. The tradition of the Church by reference to certain texts of Scripture, speaks of a cleansing fire.

As for certain lesser faults, we must believe that, before the Final Judgment, there is a purifying fire. He who is truth says that whoever utters blasphemy against the Holy Spirit will be pardoned neither in this age nor in the age to come. From this sentence we understand that certain offenses can be forgiven in this age, but certain others in the age to come. (CCC 1031)

ONE Practices to Undertake to Help and Liberate Souls in Purgatory

Fervent Prayer Any fervent, honest, noble prayer offered with purity of heart and purity of intention can serve as a means to help the souls in Purgatory. Every day, say at least one prayer for the souls in Purgatory. In doing so, you are practicing one of the Spiritual Works of Mercy.

Altar Server's Meeting

The next altar servers meeting will be on Saturday, November 13 at 3:00. Gather on the patio in front of the church. Let us continue to serve the Lord well in the Mass!

La próxima reunion de monaguillos será el sábado 13 de noviembre a las 3:00. Nos reuniremos en el patio frente a la iglesia. ¡Sigamos sirviendo bien al Señor en la misa!

Purgatory Society

Purgatorial Society meets every Wednesday evening at 7:15 pm at the Main Church.
