RCIA Have you considered inviting a friend to attend church with you? Do you know someone curious about our Catholic Christian faith? The RCIA Team welcomes inquirers into a gentle process of exploration and discernment. Please contact Deacon Jim Murray, for more information: deaconjim@gmail.com

Do you know an adult who has not been confirmed? Like the 72 in today's Gospel, we are sent to announce the kingdom of God. Will you announce the kingdom of God to that adult by inviting them to receive the Sacrament of Confirmation when the diocese has the Sacrament of Confirmation for adults baptized Catholic? Bishop Bill will be doing Adult Confirmations on November 3 in Tallahassee and November 17 in the Pensacola area. Please check with the parish office if you are interested.

Today is the 14th Sunday in Ordinary Time. The scriptures remind us that God comforts us as a mother comforts her child, and wants all to know healing and peace through the Spirit of compassion poured out on all disciples. May the gospel set us free to be faithful disciples, that wherever life takes us and with whomever we find ourselves, we may always share Christ's gift of love. Take a few moments to reflect this week ... Are you taking the time you need to receive Christ's message with joy? How is God calling you to serve?

"We may be sure that none of our acts of love will be lost, nor any of our acts of sincere concern for others. No single act of love for God will be lost, no generous effort is meaningless, no painful endurance is wasted. All of these encircle our world like a vital force."
(Pope Francis, Evangelii gaudium, 279)
