DIVINE WORSHIP ORDER OF HOLY MASS

Low Mass 8:00 am, Sung Mass 10:30am, Low Mass 6:00 pm

See Mass card or Missalette

Collect

Grant, O Lord, we beseech thee: that the course of this world may be so peaceably ordered by thy governance; that thy Church may joyfully serve thee in all godly quietness ; through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

First Reading

Wisdom 1:13-15, 2:23-24

God did not make death, and he does not delight in the death of the living. For he created all things that they might exist, and the creatures of the world are wholesome, and there is no destructive poison in them; and the dominion of Hades is not on earth. For righteousness is immortal. For God created man for incorruption, and made him in the image of his own eternity, but through the devil's envy death entered the world, and those who belong to his party experience it.

Responsorial Psalm

30:1, 3-5, 10-12

R/. I will extol you, O Lord, for you have drawn me up.

I will extol you, O Lord, for you have drawn me up,
and have not let my foes rejoice over me.
O Lord, you have brought up my soul from Sheol, restored me to life from among those gone down to the Pit. R/.

Sing praises to the Lord, O you his saints,
and give thanks to his holy name.
For his anger is but for a moment,
and his favor is for a lifetime.
Weeping may last for the night,
but joy comes with the morning. R/.

“Hear, O Lord, and be gracious to me!
O Lord, be my helper!”
You have turned for me my mourning into dancing;
O Lord my God,
I will give thanks to you for ever. R/.

Second Reading

2 Corinthians 8:7, 9, 13-15

Brethren: As you excel in everything--in faith, in utterance, in knowledge, in all earnestness, and in your love for us--see that you excel in this gracious work also. For you know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich, yet for your sake he became poor, so that by his poverty you might become rich. I do not mean that others should be eased and you burdened, but that as a matter of equality your abundance at the present time should supply their want, so that their abundance may supply your want, that there may be equality. As it is written, "He who gathered much had nothing over, and he who gathered little had no lack."

8:00 am & 6:00 pm Masses chanted by priest and people.

and brought life and immortality to light through the Gospel.

Gospel

Mark 5:21-43

At that time: When Jesus had crossed again in the boat to the other side of the Sea of Galilee, a great crowd gathered about him; and he was beside the sea. Then came one of the rulers of the synagogue, Jairus by name; and seeing him, he fell at his feet, and begged him, saying, "My little daughter is at the point of death. Come and lay your hands on her, so that she may be made well, and live." And he went with him. And a great crowd followed him and thronged about him. And there was a woman who had had a flow of blood for twelve years, and who had suffered much under many physicians, and had spent all that she had, and was no better but rather grew worse. She had heard the reports about Jesus, and came up behind him in the crowd and touched his garment. For she said, "If I touch even his garments, I shall be made well." And immediately the hemorrhage ceased; and she felt in her body that she was healed of her disease. And Jesus, perceiving in himself that power had gone forth from him, immediately turned about in the crowd, and said, "Who touched my garments?" And his disciples said to him, "You see the crowd pressing around you, and yet you say, 'Who touched me?'" And he looked around to see who had done it. But the woman, knowing what had been done to her, came in fear and trembling and fell down before him, and told him the whole truth. And he said to her, "Daughter, your faith has made you well; go in peace, and be healed of your disease." While he was still speaking, there came from the ruler's house some who said, "Your daughter is dead. Why trouble the Teacher any further?" But ignoring what they said, Jesus said to the ruler of the synagogue, "Do not fear, only believe." And he allowed no one to follow him except Peter and James and John the brother of James. When they came to the house of the ruler of the synagogue, he saw a tumult, and people weeping and wailing loudly. And when he had entered, he said to them, "Why do you make a tumult and weep? The child is not dead but sleeping." And they laughed at him. But he put them all outside, and took the child's father and mother and those who were with him, and went in where the child was. Taking her by the hand he said to her, "Talitha cumi"; which means, "Little girl, I say to you, arise." And immediately the girl got up and walked; for she was twelve years old. And immediately they were overcome with amazement. And he strictly charged them that no one should know this, and told them to give her something to eat.

Family Trivia Night is returning in the fall. Join us on Saturday, October 13th for a night of fun & fellowship. And just a little competitive spirit!!!

Work Day Success! And THANKS!

Thank you to all who came out last Saturday for Work Day at "the house." We had young and not-so-young, parishioners from every Sunday service—and together
we filled a 30 yd. dumpster.

A special thank you to all the Knights of Columbus who wanted—and carted away—all those pavers.
It was a great day — there are too many names to mention, and together we accomplished A LOT!

With my blessing and thanks,
Fr. Dean

Beginning TODAY, July 1st and continuing through August 29th SMV will be collecting bottled water for the Arlington Night Shelter. The water needs to be packaged in individual bottles, so they can be handed out at the Shelter. Any brand, any amount is useful!
It's easier for transportation purposes if you can buy a case or six pack, rather than loose bottles, but we'll take anything cause IT'S HOT OUT THERE!!!

Please help us help the Night Shelter by dropping off your donations in the Narthex or the Parish Office.

Prayers We May Learn For the Summer

Act of Faith

O My God, I firmly believe that thou art one God in three Persons, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost;
I believe that Thy divine Son became man, and died for our sins, and that He will come to judge the living and the dead. I believe these and all the truths which the holy Catholic Church teaches, because Thou hast revealed them, Who canst neither deceive nor be deceived.

Mark your calendars - Sunday July 15 - Annual Taco Salad lunch! Just be here, and I'll feed you. Love, Jacqui

To the Parishioners of St. Mary the Virgin,

“Do not be afraid, just have faith,” are the words Jesus spoke to Jairus, a father pleading for the life of his young daughter who had been told she was already dead. “Do not be afraid,” “just have faith” are words that we should remember more in the circumstances of our lives, especially when we get news that makes us aware of our mortality. God can grant miracles that restore us to health, walk with us in our valley of suffering or, give us a time of final preparation for an eternity with him. But whatever happens to us, the message is the same, do not be afraid, have faith, and trust God. Sounds simple, but our independent, stubborn, fearful and sometimes prideful nature constantly gets in the way and that is one of the reasons why God supernaturally breaks into our world and grants miracles.

Recently, the Marian shrine in Lourdes officially declared a 70th miracle since the Holy Mother appeared to St. Bernadette Soubirous in 1858 at the grotto. More than 7,000 miracles have been proclaimed by pilgrims to Lourdes, but only 70 have successfully undergone the rigorous process required by the church before a miracle is declared.

The 69th miracle occurred on May 4, 1989, but was not approved until 2013. According to the Catholic News Service, Mrs. Danila Castelli started suffering from dangerous spikes in her blood pressure at age 34 due to secretions from tumors. Multiple surgeries were performed without success. Castelli was about to embark on a trip to Mayo clinic with her husband, who is a doctor, when she instead decided to fulfill her longstanding desire to make a pilgrimage to Lourdes.

Castelli said she emerged from a bath at Lourdes with an extraordinary feeling of wellbeing, and her husband immediately knew she had been cured when he saw her. From that day she has never again experienced an episode of high blood pressure. Shortly after the pilgrimage, Castelli reported her cure to the Lourdes officials, which started the 23-year process of scrutiny.

Reported cures at Lourdes are examined by a Medical Bureau made up of about 40 people from around the world who come from different medical specialties and backgrounds. The Medical Bureau met five separate times between 1989 and 2010 to examine Castelli’s cure, which also had to be approved by the bishop of her local diocese in Italy.

Every pilgrim to Lourdes has one thing in common, faith that God can grant miracles. If they didn’t have that hope, they would never begin the journey. I hope every person who enters into our parishes also has the faith that God grants miracles. Because each and every Mass is a miracle of transubstantiation and an outpouring of God’s love and grace. Like Danila Castelli we should leave each Mass with an extraordinary feeling of wellbeing.

If that is not your experience of Mass, begin the pilgrimage of faith so that with God’s help you will find the spiritual healing your soul needs. At every Mass, I pray that God will grant us peace, which is not based on our health or circumstance, but on God’s mercy. Be not afraid, begin the pilgrimage of faith.

ad Jesum per Mariam (To Jesus through Mary),
Fr. Dean
