Collect

Lord of all power and might, who art the author and giver of all good things: graft in our hearts the love of thy Name; increase in us true religion, nourish us with all goodness, and of thy great mercy keep us in the same; through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

First Reading

Amos 7:12-15

In those days: Amaziah the priest of Bethel said to Amos, "O seer, go, flee away to the land of Judah, and eat bread there, and prophesy there; but never again prophesy at Bethel, for it is the king's sanctuary, and it is a temple of the kingdom." Then Amos answered Amaziah, "I am no prophet, nor a prophet's son; but I am a herdsman, and a dresser of sycamore trees, and the LORD took me from following the flock, and the LORD said to me, 'Go, prophesy to my people Israel.'"

Responsorial Psalm

85:7-13

R/. Show us your merciful love, O Lord, and grant us your salvation.

Let me hear what God the LORD will speak,
for he will speak peace to his people
Surely his salvation is at hand for those who fear him, that glory may dwell in our land. R/.

Mercy and faithfulness will meet;
righteousness and peace will kiss each other.
Faithfulness will spring up from the ground,
and righteousness will look down from heaven. R/.

Yes, the LORD will give what is good,
and our land will yield its increase.
Righteousness will go before him,
and make his footsteps a way. R/.

Second Reading

Ephesians 1:3-14

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in Christ with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places, even as he chose us in him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and blameless before him. He destined us in love to be his sons through Jesus Christ, according to the purpose of his will, to the praise of his glorious grace which he freely bestowed on us in the Beloved. In him we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of our trespasses, according to the riches of his grace which he lavished upon us. For he has made known to us in all wisdom and insight the mystery of his will, according to his purpose which he set forth in Christ as a plan for the fullness of time, to unite all things in him, things in heaven and things on earth. In him, according to the purpose of him who accomplishes all things according to the counsel of his will, we who first hoped in Christ have been destined and appointed to live for the praise of his glory. In him you also, who have heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and have believed in him, were sealed with the promised Holy Spirit, who is the guarantee of our inheritance until we acquire possession of it, to the praise of his glory.

8:00 am & 6:00 pm Masses chanted by priest and people.
Chanted by the choir at the 10:30 am Mass

Alleluia

Alleluia. Alleluia.

V/. May the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ enlighten the eyes of our heart that we might know what is the hope to which he has called us.

Alleluia.

Gospel

Mark 6:7-13

Jesus called to him the twelve, and began to send them out two by two, and gave them authority over the unclean spirits. He charged them to take nothing for their journey except a staff; no bread, no bag, no money in their belts; but to wear sandals and not put on two tunics. And he said to them, "Where you enter a house, stay there until you leave the place. And if any place will not receive you and they refuse to hear you, when you leave, shake off the dust that is on your feet for a testimony against them." So they went out and preached that men should repent. And they cast out many demons, and anointed with oil many that were sick and healed them.

Today, we will take up a Second Collection for the Church's Missionary and Charitable Activities. In the U.S., this Second Collection will go towards the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops' appeals for: the Church in Latin America; Catholic Relief Services; the Fund for the Church in Africa; and Peter's Pence. Contributions across the Ordinate's U.S. Parishes will be collected and divided equally among these national appeals. Help our Parish/Parochial Community participate in the Church's missionary efforts to usher all into the life of communion with God.

Please prayerfully consider a gift of any amount to today's Second Collection. Thank you.

NEWS AND NOTES

MARK YOUR CALENDARS!!!

Family Trivia Night is returning in the fall. Join us on Saturday, October 13th for a night of fun & fellowship. And just a little competitive spirit!!!

We began on July 1st and will continue through August 29th collecting bottled water for the Arlington Night Shelter. As of Friday, July 13th, we have dropped off 1200 bottles of water!!!

Please remember that the water needs to be packaged in individual bottles, so they can be handed out at the Shelter. Any brand, any amount is useful! It's easier for transportation purposes if you can buy a case or six pack, rather than loose bottles, but we'll take anything cause IT'S HOT OUT THERE!!!

Please help us to continue to help the Night Shelter by dropping off your donations in the Narthex or the Parish Office.

Today, Sunday July 15 is the Annual Taco Salad lunch! Just be here, and I'll feed you. Love, Jacqui they are very much in love!! They would like to thank all those who have been praying for them!

Brendan and Shannon Flannery are pleased to announce the birth of Josephine Marie on July 10. Mom and baby are doing well. Josephine is the great granddaughter of Gordon Bennett, and a cousin of the Jones and Brennan families.

We all thank you for your prayers.

To the Parishioners of St. Mary the Virgin,

Each of us have many concerns and we bear many crosses. The clarity of the Holy Catholic Church is under assault. The temper of these times is boiling over. In these summer months, please remember how vital adoration is to our faith which is sorely tested. Some of the “regulars” of adoration are sick or will be on vacation. Our parish needs more regular adorers in order for adoration to continue on Fridays. Please pray that the Lord will put on your heart the desire to pray without ceasing for one hour a day on Fridays when we have adoration.

The story of St. Patrick’s in the Soho neighborhood of London and how it has been revived and renewed is truly an amazing story. The Pastor recently wrote a column and I invite all to read the conclusion.

ad Jesum per Mariam,
Fr. Dean

PART TWO HOW ADORATION CAN RESCUE THE CHURCH

THE CALL TO ADORE THE LORD IS AN ANTIDOTE TO THE NOISE OF THE WORLD AND THE CHURCH'S MOST POWERFUL WEAPON

There has been in recent times a discernible increase in those drawn to Eucharistic adoration in parishes and communities, and particularly among young people. Adoration stands as an antidote to the noise and busyness of our world.

On Easter Week we received the relics of St Mary Magdalene from Vézelay in France in preparation for the celebration of Divine Mercy Sunday. St Mary Magdalene and the Octave of Easter enshrine so much of what a parish like Soho can do to proclaim a culture of life and act as a bulwark against the forces of pluralism which want to confine us to the old curiosity shop.

Mary Magdalene is that most beautiful and first witness to the Resurrection who lived the journey of conversion, repentance and healing, realising in the depth of her being what it means to be known and loved by God. Her beauty comes from being restored to her full humanity and being able to refuse the seductions of “wind, fire and earthquake” as did Elijah at Horeb. She knows what it means to evangelise, to go into the streets to invite those who do not know Christ to come and encounter and adore Him.

With a handful of parishioners but in an increasingly busy city centre, how does a church like St Patrick’s engage with our age? The visit of the relics of St Mary Magdalene has served as an invitation to come into that loving and merciful Eucharistic presence.

Perpetual Adoration will start at the time of the opening of Crossrail in December. Street evangelisation, undertaken during our regular Nightfever events, creates beautiful opportunities to say to those we encounter “come and see”.

The shrine of Montmartre, dedicated to Perpetual Adoration, was instituted in Paris in 1873 as reparation for France’s sins against the Sacred Heart. The Benedictine Adorers of the Sacred Heart of Jesus of Montmartre (Tyburn Nuns) stand at one end of Oxford Street, St Patrick’s at the other, respectively the place where many martyrs were hung, drawn and quartered, and a site through which some were dragged on their way to execution and where they were subsequently buried. Presently there is Perpetual Adoration at the west end. Let us pray that it will be established at the other end as well, thus making Oxford Street truly embraced by the love of the Eucharistic Lord.

Through that act of adoration and prayer, may many come to know and love Christ, and know that the glory of God is man fully alive. Venite adoremus.

Fr Alexander Sherbrooke is parish priest of St Patrick’s, Soho Square.
