

To the Parishioners of St. Mary the Virgin

As I recover from surgery, I am reminded of the writings of Legion of Mary founder, the Servant of God Frank Duff. I have used Duff's reflections on sanctifying our lives in my RCIA classes. While I recuperate, I offer you his thoughts on becoming a saint during the hopefully more relaxed days of summer.

"At the heart of every right-thinking Catholic, God has implanted the desire to become a saint. Yet few make a serious attempt to realize the ambition. The cause for this is to a large extent discouragement, due to the misunderstanding of what a saint really is.

"What is a saint? The answer usually returned to this question is: one who does extraordinary penances and works miracles. Now, this is an incorrect description, for neither miracles nor great penances are essential. The man who works a miracle does not raise himself in God's eyes by it; and, while penance in some shape is necessary, still the teaching of the saints on this difficult question is encouraging.

"What they direct is not bodily penances of a terrifying kind, but rather the strict avoidance of delicacies, softness, comfort. We are told to beware of injuring our health, and to eat enough plain food to enable us to work and pray without hindrance. There is ample opportunity for the severest mortification in the restraint of eyes and tongue, and in a warfare against the seven deadly sins.

"Thus, there is another definition of what a saint is. It is this: One who, with the object of pleasing God, does his ordinary duties extraordinarily well. Such a life may be lived out without a single wonder in it, arouse little notice, be soon forgotten, and yet be the life of one of God's dearest friends.

"It is obviously an encouragement to look on sanctity in this way. When we see that those things which so terrified us in the lives of the saints, because we felt we could not do them ourselves, are not the important part of their sanctity at all, we should feel heartened to begin today and make a serious effort for great holiness. Believe this: it is only the first few wrenches given to the will that really hurt. Perhaps the following words of Cardinal [John Henry] Newman will tempt us to take a step forward on the road:

"If you ask me what you are to do in order to be perfect, I say,

"First do not lie in bed beyond the time of rising;

"Give your first thoughts to God;

"Make a good visit to the Blessed Sacrament;

"Say the Angelus devoutly;

"Eat and drink to God's glory;

"Say the Rosary well;

"Be recollected;

"Keep out bad thoughts;

"Make your evening meditation well;

"Examine yourself daily;

"Go to bed in good time, and you are already perfect."

Fr. Prentice Dean, Pastor

Fr. Thomas Kennedy, Parochial Vicar

Welcome to The Catholic Church of St. Mary the Virgin. We are a parish of the Personal Ordinariate of the Chair of Saint Peter authorized by Pope Benedict XVI in 2012 for Anglicans seeking to become Catholic. Ordinariate parishes are fully Catholic, while retaining elements of their Anglican heritage and embracing the roots of the Catholic faith's rich tradition through reverent liturgy and historical music. All Catholics are invited to participate in our Divine Worship liturgy and receive communion by kneeling (if able) at the altar rail and receiving our Lord on the tongue.

Sacrament of Marriage

Please contact the parish for details regarding the preparation program. Under Ordinariate policy, couples should contact a member of the parish clergy at least six months prior to their proposed wedding date.

Collect

O God, the protector of all that trust in thee, without whom nothing is strong, nothing is holy: increase and multiply upon us thy mercy; that thou being our ruler and guide, we may so pass through things temporal, that we finally lose not the things eternal: grant this, O heavenly Father, for the sake of Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, ever one God, world without end. Amen

Scripture of the Mass

First Reading

Deuteronomy 30:10-14

Moses spoke to the people, saying, "You shall obey the voice of the Lord your God, and keep his commandments and his statutes which are written in this book of the law, and turn to the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul.

"For this commandment which I command you this day is not too hard for you, neither is it far off. It is not in heaven, that you should say, 'Who will go up for us to heaven, and bring it to us, that we may hear it and do it?' Neither is it beyond the sea, that you should say, 'Who will go over the sea for us, and bring it to us, that we may hear it and do it?' But the word is very near you; it is in your mouth and in your heart, so that you can do it."

8:00 a.m. & 6:00 p.m. Masses said by lector and people after the First Reading. Chanted by the choir at the 10:30 a.m. Mass.

Gradual

Be merciful unto our sins O Lord: wherefore do the heathen say, Where is now their God?
V. Help us, O god of our salvation: for the glory of thy Name, deliver us, O Lord.

Second Reading

Colossians 1:15-20

Christ Jesus is the image of the invisible God, the first-born of all creation; for in him all things were created, in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or principalities or authorities--all things were created through him and for him. He is before all things, and in him all things hold together. He is the head of the body, the Church; he is the beginning, the first-born from the dead, that in everything he might be pre-eminent. For in him all the fulness of God was pleased to dwell, and through him to reconcile to himself all things, whether on earth or in heaven, making peace by the blood of his cross.

8:00 a.m. & 6:00 p.m. Masses chanted by priest and people. Chanted by the choir at the 10:30 a.m. Mass.

Alleluia

Alleluia. Alleluia.

Thou, O God, art set in the throne that judgest right: be thou the refuge of the oppressed in due time of trouble

Alleluia.

The Holy Gospel

Luke 10:25-37

At that time: Behold, a lawyer stood up to put Jesus to the test, saying, "Teacher, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?"

He said to him, "What is written in the law? What do you read there?" And he answered, "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your strength, and with all your mind; and your neighbor as yourself."

And he said to him, "You have answered right; do this, and you will live."

But he, desiring to justify himself, said to Jesus, "And who is my neighbor?"

Jesus replied, "A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and he fell among robbers, who stripped him and beat him, and departed, leaving him half dead. Now by chance a priest was going down that road; and when he saw him he passed by on the other side. So likewise a Levite, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side. But a Samaritan, as he journeyed, came to where he was; and when he saw him, he had compassion, and went to him and bound up his wounds, pouring on oil and wine; then he set him on his own beast and brought him to an inn, and took care of him. And the next day he took out two denarii and gave them to the innkeeper, saying, 'Take care of him; and whatever more you spend, I will repay you when I come back.' Which of these three, do you think, proved neighbor to the man who fell among the robbers?"

He said, "The one who showed mercy on him." And Jesus said to him, "Go and do likewise."

News and Notes

Potluck Dinner on Wednesday

Come one, come all to the potluck dinner at 7 p.m. on Wednesday to support the youths and children of our parish participating in the Totus Tuus program and meet their missionary teachers.

Please note that the daily Mass schedule has been drastically altered! See the schedule on this page.

Fr. Dean's Wish List

Thanks to the incredible generosity of the parish, all reliquaries, both vases and the St. Peter statue have all been fully funded. When Fr. Dean heard the good news, his response was, "Golly, God is good!"

We still need the funding for the oriental carpet and we will have to replace the fair linen for the new altar at a cost of approximately $700.00. Donations are still being gratefully accepted for these items.

The Parish Offering

Weekly Offering Forecast.....$6,000.00
Actual Offertory Collected.....$7,385.00
Variance.....$1,385.00

Thank you for your generosity!
