

To the Parishioners of St. Mary the Virgin

On August 22, we will celebrate the Feast of the Queenship of Mary, which is a feast instituted by Pope Pius XII on Oct. 11, 1956, at the close of a year devoted to Mary. The pope declared the feast day to entreat Mary's aid at a time when "many great moral evils are being spread abroad in what may be described as a violent flood." He also called for the feast to be used as a renewal of the consecration of the human race to the Immaculate Heart of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

Originally the feast day was celebrated on May 31, the last day of the Marian month. In 1969, Pope Paul VI moved the feast day to Aug. 22, which is the octave day of the Solemnity of the Assumption.

Pope Pius XII noted that from the earliest ages of the Catholic Church "a Christian people whether in time of triumph or more especially in time of crisis, has addressed prayers of petition and hymns of praise and veneration to the Queen of Heaven."

The hymn we will sing on Thursday, "Hail Holy Queen" was in use in the 12th century and artwork throughout the history of the church has portrayed Mary as a Queen seated upon a royal throne, crowned with royal diadem and surrounded by angels and saints in heaven. The Queenship of Mary is also the subject of the final decade of the Glories Mysteries of the Rosary.

As St. John Damascene wrote, "When she became Mother of the Creator, she truly became Queen of every creature."

St. Anselm, who's relic will be placed in our altar on Thursday, said that just as "God by making all through His power, is Father and Lord of all, so the blessed Mary, by repairing all through her merits, is Mother and Queen of all; for God is the Lord of all things, because by His command He establishes each of them in its own nature, and Mary is the Queen of all things, because she restores each to its original dignity through the grace which she merited."

Pope Pius XII noted that "Jesus is King throughout all eternity by nature and by right of conquest: through Him, with Him and subordinate to Him, Mary is Queen by grace, by divine relationship, by right of conquest, and by singular choice [of the Father]. And her kingdom is as vast as that of her Son and God, since nothing is excluded from her dominion."

As we gather on Thursday to praise God with our Bishop and dedicate our new altar, let us in the words of Pope Pius XII, "try to approach with great trust the throne of grace and mercy of our Queen and Mother, and beg for strength in adversity, light in darkness, consolation in sorrow... Let her churches be thronged by the faithful, her feast days honored; may the beads of the Rosary be in the hands of all; may Christians gather, in small numbers and large, to sing her praises in churches, in homes, in hospitals, in prisons."

Fr. Prentice Dean, Pastor

Fr. Thomas Kennedy, Parochial Vicar

Welcome to The Catholic Church of St. Mary the Virgin. We are a parish of the Personal Ordinariate of the Chair of Saint Peter authorized by Pope Benedict XVI in 2012 for Anglicans seeking to become Catholic. Ordinariate parishes are fully Catholic, while retaining elements of their Anglican heritage and embracing the roots of the Catholic faith's rich tradition through reverent liturgy and historical music. All Catholics are invited to participate in our Divine Worship liturgy and receive communion by kneeling (if able) at the altar rail and receiving our Lord on the tongue.

Sacrament of Marriage

Please contact the parish for details regarding the preparation program. Under Ordinariate policy, couples should contact a member of the parish clergy at least six months prior to their proposed wedding date.

Collect

Grant to us, Lord, we beseech thee, the spirit to think and do always such things as be rightful: that we, who cannot do any thing that is good without thee, may by thee be enabled to live according to thy will; through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

Prayer for Vocations

Priest: Please kneel for our prayer for vocations. Let us ask God to give worthy priests, brothers and sisters to His Holy Church.

All: O God, / we earnestly beseech Thee / to bless this Ordinariate / with many priests, / brothers / and sisters, / who will love Thee with their whole strength / and gladly spend their entire lives / to serve Thy Church / and to make Thee known and loved.

Priest: Bless our families. / Bless our children.

All: Choose from our homes / those who are needed for Thy work.

Priest: Mary Queen of the Clergy!

All: Pray for us. Pray for our priests and religious. Obtain for us many more. Amen.

Scripture of the Mass

First Reading

Jeremiah 38:4-6, 8-10

In those days: The princes said to the king, "Let this Jeremiah be put to death, for he is weakening the hands of the soldiers who are left in this city, and the hands of all the people, by speaking such words to them. For this man is not seeking the welfare of this people, but their harm."

King Zedekiah said, "Behold, he is in your hands; for the king can do nothing against you."

So they took Jeremiah and cast him into the cistern of Malchiah, the king's son, which was in the court of the guard, letting Jeremiah down by ropes. And there was no water in the cistern, but only mire, and Jeremiah sank in the mire.

Ebed-melech went from the king's house and said to the king, "My lord the king, these men have done evil in all that they did to Jeremiah the prophet by casting him into the cistern; and he will die there of hunger, for there is no bread left in the city."

Then the king commanded Ebed-melech, the Ethiopian, "Take three men with you from here, and lift Jeremiah the prophet out of the cistern before he dies."

8:00 a.m. & 6:00 p.m. Masses said by lector and people after the First Reading. Chanted by the choir at the 10:30 a.m. Mass.

Gradual

O Lord our Governor:
how excellent is thy Name in all the world.
V. Thy hast set thy glory above the heavens.

Second Reading

Hebrews 12:1-4

Brethren: Since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us also lay aside every weight, and sin which clings so closely, and let us run with perseverance the race that is set before us, looking to Jesus the pioneer and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is seated at the right hand of the throne of God.

Consider him who endured from sinners such hostility against himself, so that you may not grow weary or fainthearted. In your struggle against sin you have not yet resisted to the point of shedding your blood.

8:00 a.m. & 6:00 p.m. Masses chanted by priest and people. Chanted by the choir at the 10:30 a.m. Mass.

Alleluia

Alleluia. Alleluia.

Deliver me from mine enemies, O God:
defend me from them that rise up against me.

Alleluia.

The Holy Gospel

Luke 12:49-53

At that time: Jesus said to his disciples, "I came to cast fire upon the earth; and would that it were already kindled! I have a baptism to be baptized with; and how I am constrained until it is accomplished! Do you think that I have come to give peace on earth? No, I tell you, but rather division; for henceforth in one house there will be five divided, three against two and two against three; they will be divided, father against son and son against father, mother against daughter and daughter against her mother, mother-in-law against her daughter-in-law and daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law."

Altar Dedication, Feast of the Queenship of Mary on Thursday

All are invited to a special Mass on Thursday, August 22, celebrated by Bishop Steven J. Lopes to dedicate the new altar at St. Mary the Virgin and in honor of the Feast of the Queenship of Mary. The evening of celebration will be capped by a free parish taco salad dinner in the parish hall.

Work on the altar and new reredos began about a year ago and was one of a number of improvements to the sanctuary, nave and narthex that began with the replacement of the ceiling tiles and new lights. All the improvements are designed to focus attention onto what occurs at our altars – the meeting of heaven and earth and the bloodless representation of Christ's sacrifice for our salvation.

Watch the bulletin and e-mail for the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd parent meeting!

New Class for Catholic Women

Starting on Sept. 8, St. Mary the Virgin will be offering a new course for Catholic women to study the "Letter to Women" by Pope Saint John Paul II to be held at 9:15 to 10:15 a.m. on Sunday mornings. This is the foundation course of the ENDOW program, which stands for Educating on the Nature and Dignity of Women. The letter presents St. John Paul II's vision of the vital role of the female genius in society.

ENDOW courses are designed for busy women. There are no homework assignments and reading and discussions all occur within the class time. The subsidized cost of the course book is $15. The church must order the books by the end of August. If you would like to participate in the class, please notify either the church office at 817-460-2278, Megan Schmitt or Teresa Dean, who will be facilitating the course. Participants will pay for the books when they are received on Sept. 8.
