

To the Parishioners of St. Mary the Virgin

Cardinal Raymond L. Burke gave a brief interview to La Nuova Bussola Quotidiana on September 24 (this past Tuesday) which may help us understand some of the current goings-on in Rome and amongst the Church hierarchy, especially the upcoming so-called “Amazon Synod” and the document (Instrumentum Laboris) that laid the groundwork for the gathering. These are not easy days for the Church. Clarity and truthfulness can be found and there are those who do proclaim it. Please continue to pray for bishops to have the courage to speak and proclaim God’s truth. I have included some responses of Cardinal Burke.

“We cannot neglect to announce Christ to those who do not know him and we cannot fail to demonstrate the beauty of the Church. This leaves the interlocutor perfectly free, but he receives the testimony. I’m reminded of the story of an Islamic immigrant who met a young Catholic and after talking about their faiths, was so impressed by a God that is close to His people, the contrary to what is lived in Islam; he asked to be baptised. Jesus Christ is the only saviour of the world and if we proclaim Christ, people will be interested. If we do not mention Christ and if we do not say that our love comes from Him, nourished by the Eucharist, why would anyone think to ask us about Him?”

“We must pray and fast for the Church because we are in a moment of profound crisis. We must do everything we can to defend the integrity of the Catholic faith. This document [Instrumentum Laboris] cannot be accepted. The truth of Christ is being challenged, when it is stated that these pagan cultures are in any-way sources of revelation that warrant respect in themselves even though they are outside the context of God's plan which is only fulfilled by Christ’s Incarnation. According to the profoundly mistaken view of the Instrumentum Laboris, Christ and the cosmos are one and God also reveals himself in other circumstances. This view is closely connected to pantheism. Therefore it is a cult of the natural world. But the only cult for us is divine worship and it is through this worship offered to God, that God teaches us and we can understand what is the correct relationship with nature and with ourselves.”

“The Synod is presented as being for the pastoral care of the people to be evangelised in the Amazon, but the German bishops state clearly that the goal is to revolutionise the whole Church, which is certainly not God's plan but a kind of ideology. Even the bishop of Essen, Monsignor Franz-Josef Overbeck, said very recently that after the Amazon Synod “nothing will ever be the same again” in the Church.”

Fr. Prentice Dean, Pastor

Fr. Thomas Kennedy, Parochial Vicar

Welcome to The Catholic Church of St. Mary the Virgin. We are a parish of the Personal Ordinariate of the Chair of Saint Peter authorized by Pope Benedict XVI in 2012 for Anglicans seeking to become Catholic. Ordinariate parishes are fully Catholic, while retaining elements of their Anglican heritage and embracing the roots of the Catholic faith’s rich tradition through reverent liturgy and historical music. All Catholics are invited to participate in our Divine Worship liturgy and receive communion by kneeling (if able) at the altar rail and receiving our Lord on the tongue.

Sacrament of Marriage

Please contact the parish for details regarding the preparation program. Under Ordinariate policy, couples should contact a member of the parish clergy at least six months prior to their proposed wedding date.

Collect

Keep, we beseech thee, O Lord, thy Church with thy perpetual mercy: and, because the frailty of man without thee cannot but fall; keep us ever by thy help from all things hurtful, and lead us to all things profitable to our salvation; through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

Scripture of the Mass

First Reading

Amos 6:1a, 4-7

Thus says the Lord almighty: "Woe to those who are at ease in Zion, and to those who feel secure on the mountain of Samaria. Woe to those who lie upon beds of ivory, and stretch themselves upon their couches, and eat lambs from the flock, and calves from the midst of the stall; who sing idle songs to the sound of the harp, and like David invent for themselves instruments of music; who drink wine in bowls, and anoint themselves with the finest oils, but are not grieved over the ruin of Joseph! Therefore they shall now be the first of those to go into exile, and the revelry of those who stretch themselves shall pass away."

8:00 a.m. & 6:00 p.m. Masses said by lector and people after the First Reading. Chanted by the choir at the 10:30 a.m. Mass.

Gradual

It is a good thing to give thanks unto the Lord: and to sing praises unto thy Name, O Most Highest.

V. To tell of thy loving-kindness early in the morning: and of thy truth in the night season.

Second Reading

1 Timothy 6:11-16

O Man of God, aim at righteousness, godliness, faith, love, steadfastness, gentleness. Fight the good fight of the faith; take hold of the eternal life to which you were called when you made the good confession in the presence of many witnesses. In the presence of God who gives life to all things, and of Christ Jesus who in his testimony before Pontius Pilate made the good confession, I charge you to keep the commandment unstained and free from reproach until the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ; and this will be made manifest at the proper time by the blessed and only Sovereign, the King of kings and Lord of lords, who alone has immortality and dwells in unapproachable light, whom no man has ever seen or can see. To him be honor and eternal dominion. Amen.

40 Days For Life to End Abortion

Fort Worth is one of the 505 cities across the United States and world participating in the 40 Days for Life peaceful prayer vigils outside abortion clinics. The fall campaign to end abortion started on Sept. 25 and will end on Nov. 3.

The Fort Worth campaign will focus on presenting a peaceful prayer vigil at the public right-of-way outside of Planned Parenthood on 6454 John Ryan Drive in Fort Worth. Both Fr. Dean and Teresa have partici-

8:00 a.m. & 6:00 p.m. Masses chanted by priest and people. Chanted by the choir at the 10:30 a.m. Mass.

Alleluia

Alleluia. Alleluia.

For the Lord is a great God:
and a great King over all the earth.

Alleluia.

The Holy Gospel

Luke 16:19-31

At that time: Jesus said to the Pharisees, "There was a rich man, who was clothed in purple and fine linen and who feasted sumptuously every day. And at his gate lay a poor man named Lazarus, full of sores, who desired to be fed with what fell from the rich man's table; moreover the dogs came and licked his sores. The poor man died and was carried by the angels to Abraham's bosom. The rich man also died and was buried; and in Hades, being in torment, he lifted up his eyes, and saw Abraham far off and Lazarus in his bosom. And he called out, 'Father Abraham, have mercy upon me, and send Lazarus to dip the end of his finger in water and cool my tongue; for I am in anguish in this flame.'

But Abraham said, 'Son, remember that you in your lifetime received your good things, and Lazarus in like manner evil things; but now he is comforted here, and you are in anguish. And besides all this, between us and you a great chasm has been fixed, in order that those who would pass from here to you may not be able, and none may cross from there to us.'

And he said, 'Then I beg you, father, to send him to my father's house, for I have five brothers, so that he may warn them, lest they also come into this place of torment.' But Abraham said, 'They have Moses and the prophets; let them hear them.'

And he said, 'No, father Abraham; but if some one goes to them from the dead, they will repent.'

He said to him, 'If they do not hear Moses and the prophets, neither will they be convinced if some one should rise from the dead.'" pated in 40 Days for Life prayer vigils in the past and can attest to the fact that they save lives and change hearts. More information on the Fort Worth vigil may be found at <http://40daysforlifefortworth.com/>.

If you are not able to pray at the Fort Worth or other vigil locations, you may still participate in 40 Days for Life by engaging in dedicated prayer and fasting at home. Fasting may be a sacrificial denial of food, TV, alcohol or other activities.

News and Notes

Advent Social Outreach Program

The SMV Advent Outreach program comes early this year. We are participating in the Cross Catholic Box of Joy program and our goal is to fill 50 boxes.

The idea is to fill a box with small gifts for a child in a chosen age category so that they have a gift on Christmas morning.

A sample box and a list of suggested gift items is available in the Narthex. Boxes will be handed out next Sunday, and must be returned by Sunday, November 3 with a check for $9.00 to cover the cost of shipping. Plan to return them on any Sunday or to the parish office during the week between the hours of 9:00 a.m.— 4:00 p.m.

Country Store Coming in November

On Sunday, Nov. 17th, there will be a Sunday Lunch and an SMV Country Store after the 10:30 a.m. Mass until 5:00 p.m. The Country Store is for parishioners to sell their crafts, food stuffs and other specialty and religious items. Table space is free for registered member of the parish.

The store is for children and others to shop for Christmas gifts for family members. Space is limited so please e-mail Jacqui Payne at jacquip@sbcglobal.net or call 817-821-4162.

Family Guild Meets on Saturday

St. Mary's Family Guild will meet at the parish hall on Saturday, Oct. 5 at 3:00 p.m. The Family Guild for married couples meets on the first Saturday of every month. The program fosters spiritual growth, communication and charity between married couples. Couples read and discuss practical information on marriage and family life from a Catholic perspective.

Children meet separately, supervised by older family members, and participate in activities and skits that focus on their growth in a life of virtues and holiness. The meetings conclude with a potluck dinner and fellowship. For more information, contact Katie Aparicio at k.e.aparicio@gmail.com.
