

Week of November 22, 2021

Announcements:

- Wednesday is a half day! Students are dismissed at 11:30. Please make sure your child knows how they are getting home from school! No CARES.
- On Wednesday, we will be attending a prayer service that the 1st and 5th graders have been practicing hard for! We can't wait.
- Advent begins on Sunday, the 28th.
- Santa's Secret Shop will be here at SFA on December 6th and 7th! When I get the schedule, I will notify you on which day we are going.
- Friday, December 3rd is our First Friday mass for December.
- Looking ahead: students are off on December 8th.
- Looking ahead: Picture retakes December 9th.

Next week, we will be starting a new story in ELA so we will not have any ELA tests until the following week.

We are wrapping up our math chapter on subtraction. The test date will most likely be December 3rd, but if that should change, I will let you know! After subtraction, we will be focusing on Multiplication! This is where the index card and index card holders will come in. If you bought them over the summer with the rest of the school supplies, make sure you are able to locate them. I will let everyone know when we need them in school.

We will be continuing with our second unit in religion next week. This will have us on chapter 8. The test will be the following week on Tuesday, the 7th.

We will continue our chapter on Communities in social studies.

That should do it for this week! I hope you all have a wonderful, happy Thanksgiving! Have a great long weekend!
