

Miss Emily's daily

2021-2022

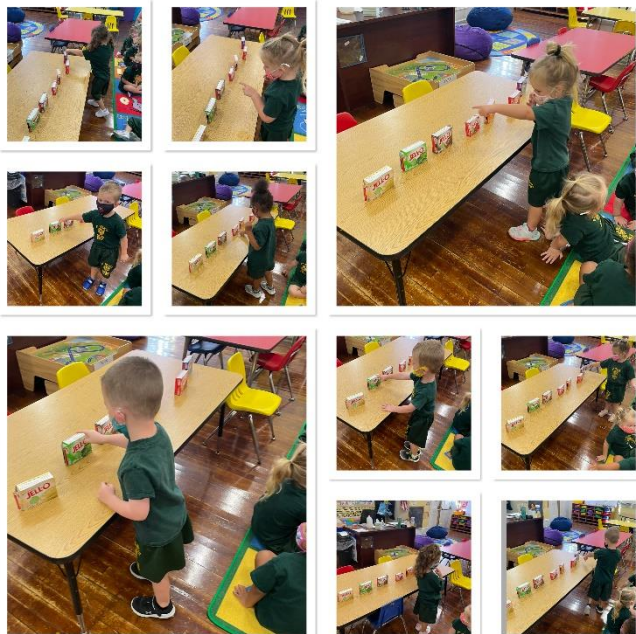

Sept 20th, 2021

Theme of the week:

Five senses

Today's focus was on the sense of smell.

The children were each invited to come up and smell different Jell-O flavors. They were encouraged to make a guess of what flavor each packet was based off the smell

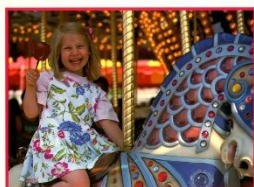

Then, we used the Jell-O for our activity. The children "painted" their name using the different packets of Jell-O.

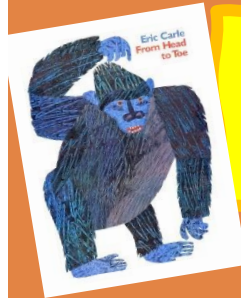

Book of the day

MY FIVE SENSES

Another fun music Monday with Miss C!! The children got to play different instruments and got their little bodies moving to some fun song.

Miss Missy read the story, From Head to Toe. The children got to act like different animals while listening to the story

Important info/Reminders

- Nap mats came in last Friday afternoon. You will no longer need to send in your child's nap mat from home.
- SFA's block party is this Friday.
- Please have your child wear something yellow this Thursday. It can be a yellow shirt, shorts, shoes, etc.
- Will be introducing letter of the week next week instead of this week. The theme next week will be apples, so it will be the perfect time to start. I do not work on letters in order. The letter always matched the theme for the week.
