our midst. If you think God is calling you to be a priest, contact Fr. Michael King, Vocation Director, Diocese of Hamilton 905-528-7988,

SHARE LENT

Thank you to all for your donation to the annual Share Lent Collection which amounted to $4,192.00.
When we give to charity we must always remember the words of Jesus, “Whatever you do for the least of my brothers and sisters you do for me.” These words of Jesus were also generously fulfilled by your donation of soap and salt for the Canadian food for children. Let us always remember that God will not be out done in generosity. Thank you to all for your response to the appeal for Canadian Food for Children.

The theme of last week's homily was, “FORGIVE AND FORGET” and below is the quote from the homily.

In Hearts That We Broke Long Ago, Canadian writer Merle Shain sums up the dreadful effects resentments has on us.

Until one forgives, life is governed by an endless cycle of resentments and retaliations, and we spend our days scratching at the scabs of the wounds that we sustained long ago instead of letting them dry up and disappear. There is no way to hate another that does not cost the hater, no way to remain unforgiving without maiming yourself, because undissolved anger shutters through the body of the person who cannot forgive.
