iPad/Chromebook Use Rules

In the interests of furthering the educational goals of Mother of Providence Regional Catholic School, the school will make available for use by the student one iPad for K-2, Chromebooks for grades 3-8, and Google Apps for Education account.

Students and parents are required to review this document, as well as sign the accompanying agreement prior to the use of school issued iPads and Google Apps for Education account.

Technology resources are provided for the purpose of supporting the educational mission of the school. The school's goal in providing the iPad/Chromebook is to promote educational excellence by facilitating resource sharing, innovation, research, creativity, communication, increased productivity, and mobile learning.

Use of these technologies is a privilege that carries responsibility and behavioral expectations consistent with all school rules and policies, including but not limited to those stated in the school handbook. It is understood that all members of the school community will use all types of computing devices and the school's network in a responsible, ethical, and legal manner at all times.

The Archdiocese of Philadelphia, Office of Catholic Education (AOP/OCE), and Mother of Providence Regional School retain sole right of possession of the iPad/Chromebook and related equipment.

The iPad/Chromebook will be issued to students according to the guidelines set forth in this document. AOP/OCE and Mother of Providence Regional School retain the right to collect and/or inspect the iPad/Chromebook at any time, and to alter, add, or delete installed software or hardware.

Student Rights & Responsibilities

Use and Ownership

The iPad/Chromebook is property of Mother of Providence Regional School, and this program is a privilege.

The iPad/Chromebook is for individual student educational use, and will be issued upon the student's and parent/guardian's signed acceptance of the terms of this iPad/Chromebook use agreement.

iPads/Chromebooks are not a family device and only should be used by the student for school assignments and tasks and not members of the family.

You will abide by the Acceptable Use Policy for Technology and the Acceptable Use Policy for iPads/Chromebooks guidelines set forth by the Catholic Schools of the Archdiocese of Philadelphia.

If you accept a MPRCS provided iPad/Chromebook, it must be returned to MPRCS at the conclusion of the student's educational relationship with MPRCS or at the conclusion of the school year, whichever is sooner.

Participation in this program will also require participation in the schools Google Apps for Education Program.

Technical Support

Technical support will be provided during normal school hours in the computer lab.

You are responsible for maintaining a backup of all data and settings on the iPad/Chromebook through the use of iCloud.

MPRCS will assist students with setup of a Google account for the purposes of file backup.

MPRCS is not responsible for data loss in the event of a device failure or malfunction.

Apps

For grades K-2, iPads will be used in school only. They are synced with the school account and the apps are already installed on them.

Accidental Damage or Theft Coverage

If you accept a MPRCS iPad/Chromebook, you have the option of purchasing insurance from the school. Any costs associated with damage or theft of your iPad/Chromebook beyond what is covered by insurance will result in charges to the student and parents.

What To Do If Your iPad/Chromebook is damaged or stolen.

- (1) It is your responsibility to notify the Principal and or Technology teacher immediately.
- (2) In the event of damage or malfunction, make sure you return the iPad/Chromebook and all accessories, even if they are functional, to the computer lab.
- (3) Your iPad/Chromebook will be repaired or replaced at the discretion of the technology staff, and you will be notified of any charges.
- (4) If your iPad/Chromebook is stolen, you will be required to file a police report after notifying the staff in the computer lab.

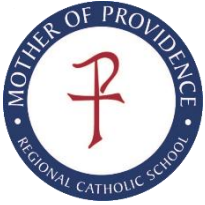

Usage

Your iPad/Chromebook is designed to be your personal learning device. As is the case with all technology used at or owned by MPRCS, you are governed under the rules and regulations covered in MPRCS Acceptable Use Regulations.

Inappropriate use of the iPad/Chromebook could result in the removal of the iPad/Chromebook from your possession and/or additional disciplinary action.

In addition to the Acceptable Use Regulations the following guidelines also apply:

- (1) The iPad/Chromebook may be provided with apps necessary for your school work.
- (2) Mother of Providence Regional School does use a Proxy Server on the iPads/Chromebooks and will be able to filter websites when the student is OFF CAMPUS. In addition Mother of Providence Regional School can view logs of websites visited or attempted to visit websites accessed on a school issued device.
- (3) Students may NOT configure additional personal email accounts on the device. Only MPRCS issued email accounts may be used.
- (4) Mobile device management software and profiles may not be removed from the device.
- (5) The student will bring their device to school each day with a fully charged battery.
- (6) The student will exercise all due and reasonable care in handling and use of said equipment and agrees to return the equipment in good condition.
- (7) Students can expect their device to be periodically inspected and monitored for appropriate usage.
- (8) The device should never be used for purposes for which they were never intended or authorized.
- (9) Only the device case issues by MPRCS may be used. No personal cases.
