 - Why and how does God call my family and community to follow Jesus Christ?
 - Why and how does God call the Universal Church to follow Jesus Christ?
- What day of the week or time of the week have you been setting aside to work through the book? If that has not worked well for you, consider setting a new time now: _____
- What is one thing that is going well in your home-based study of the faith this year? _____
- What is one thing that's been challenging in your home-based study of the faith this year? _____

Ch. 12: The Catholic Family

Ch. 17: The First Christians

- Circle the things that the First Christians did below.
 1. Prayed together
 2. Shared their food
 3. Kept all their money for themselves
 4. Learned about Jesus
 5. Praised God
- Read the story about the first Christians on pg. 158 again. What is one thing that the first Christians did that you can do, too?

Ash Wednesday/Lent (pg 241-244)

Lent begins on February 26th this year. To help you prepare for Lent, attached to this packet are Lenten Action Cards. You will cut them out and glue them back together to make a chain (see picture below) with your family. Every day of Lent, you will take a link off the chain, read what is on the slip and do it as a family. The first section is filled in for you to get you started, but the rest are blank for your family to come up with Lenten Actions that will help you grow closer to God! (Note: Parents with multiple children in Home-Based FF, this activity is the same for all grades, so you only need to create one Lenten Action Chain per family, not per student).

I made my Lenten Action Chain for this Lent!

DO NOT FORGET TO BRING THIS COMPLETED PACKET TO THE FOURTH REQUIRED HOME-BASED MEETING ON APRIL 2.

Fast from taking second helpings at meals.

Take over a disliked chore for a family member.

Attend Mass as often as you can. The Eucharist is our greatest communal prayer and a surefire way to encounter Jesus.

Pray with your family at mealtime. Make a point of praying for people in need.

At bedtime pray for people who are homeless and sleeping on the streets tonight.

Be more courteous in your attitude, words, and deeds.

Fast from the habit, substance, practice, or mindset that most stands in the way of your growing closer to God.

While grocery shopping, purchase an additional day's supply of food and drop it off at a local food pantry.

Use your imagination in prayer. Picture yourself as someone meeting Jesus in a scene from the Gospels. Imagine your reaction and response to Jesus.

Send a greeting card or a letter to a relative, friend, or fellow parishioner who is homebound.

Fast from eating food mindlessly, that is, from not even bothering to taste it.

Clean up a common area at work, in the neighborhood, or at home. Do it as your gift for the good of all.

Invite a widowed neighbor to join your family for a meal.
