Donations:To St. Rose Church and School*From:*Msgr. Mario Serraglio*From:*Phyllis Patton Luke

It's with heartfelt gratitude that we welcome Bishop Frederick Campbell to the consortium this weekend to formally install me as pastor of these four churches. I am grateful to his support of my vocation since I've been in the seminary, and most especially ordaining me to the diaconate and priesthood. The next most honored guests would be my parents, Frank and Judy Hartge. I couldn't have embraced this vocation to the priesthood without their example of living their faith at home and making many sacrifices to send me and my siblings to Catholic schools. It's because of them that I'm here with you all as pastor.

On Saturday, August 4 is the Feast Day of St. John Vianney. He is the patron saint of diocesan priests and all priests. His love for his people in his small country church in Ars, France set that little village on fire for the Lord, and brought great renewal of the faith to the hearts of many people. His devotion to the sacraments, and his desire to spend time with the people he served is an inspiration to me and to many priests. Today especially, please pray for his intercession for me as I continue to settle into this mission of being a pastor.

Finally, thank you to each and every volunteer who helped make the Fair Food Booth such a success! St. Rose School is much loved here, and I can see the support for it through the commitment and sacrifices of so many.

In Christ,

Fr. Hartge

Some summarize this as "babies and bonding" Natural Family Planning (NFP) respects the dual love-giving and life-giving dimensions of marriage in a way that contraception cannot. Engaged and married couples are invited to learn about the NFP difference by visiting <http://www.columbuscatholic.org/natural-family-planning> or contacting the marriage and Family Life Office at 614-241-2560..
