FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Our Confirmandi will be on retreat next weekend, from Friday, October 19th-Sunday, October 21. Please pray for them, that their time away from their busy schedules of school and extracurriculars will be fruitful. It's good for us to "retreat" occasionally in order to refocus our lives on the Lord. This gives us an opportunity to be reminded that we're not facing life's challenges alone. It also opens us up to receive God's loving consolation through some additional prayer time that is often hard to come by in our busy routines. There are many retreats available to women, men, and couples each year. The Catholic Times is usually an excellent resource to find out about upcoming weekend or one-day retreats.

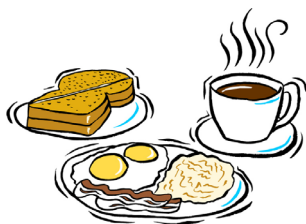

I won't be retreating next weekend, but I will be running! I'm going to participate in the Columbus Half Marathon, so I'll be away on Sunday morning, October 21. You'll be in good hands! Fr. Peter Totleben, OP, will be the celebrant for the 9:00 a.m. Mass at St. Patrick and the 10:30 a.m. Mass at St. Rose. Fr. Peter is a Dominican priest in residence at St. Patrick Church in Columbus, but we all know where the most important St. Patrick Church in the diocese really is! :)

Lastly, RCIA is in full swing. If you know anyone who is interested in joining us on Tuesday evenings at 6:00 p.m., please invite them to come. We meet in the lower level of the PCC. We'll continue to accept people who are interested in joining the Church until October 23rd. If you would like to learn more about the Catholic faith, whether you are already Catholic or just curious, please see the insert that explains how you can stream the sessions we watch in class in the comfort of your own home. Because we're using the Credo program from St. Benedict Press, this gives the whole parish access to the streaming videos. I think you'll find them engaging and informative.

In Christ Jesus,
Fr. Hartge

K OF C BREAKFAST

THE CATHOLIC FOUNDATION

28th Sunday in Ordinary Time: "It is easier for a camel to pass through the eye of a needle than for one who is rich to enter the kingdom of God." (Mark 10:25). Jesus uses tough language that we may not want to hear. But, we are all called to be generous with all our gifts. Not just the ones we pick and choose, but all our gifts; our time in prayer to God, our talent in participating in parish ministries and our treasure supporting our local parish and other charities.

Learn how to share your gifts and Catholic legacy by supporting your parish. Contact the Catholic Foundation at www.catholic-foundation.org/development for more information.

Fun for Seniors

OVER 50

Will meet at noon on Monday, October 15th, in the Lower Level of the PCC. We will play Bingo and Euchre, so bring your friends and favorite side dish. We will see you there!

CATHOLIC SOCIAL SERVICES: Recent breakfast featured Author and Journalist Sam Quinones, who gave a riveting speech about the many interconnected factors leading up to the opioid epidemic facing our country. Mr. Quinones also touched upon some of the solutions that we can work towards together. He said, "I BELIEVE MORE STRONGLY THAN EVER THAT THE ANTIDOTE TO HEROIN IS NOT NALOXONE - IT'S COMMUNITY." Catholic Social Services have a first-hand view of opiate addiction and its devastating effects on generations of people. They hope to continue this important conversation with us. Only together, can we make our community a place where all people can thrive.

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY will be celebrated next weekend. Pope Francis invites the entire Church to support the mission Dioceses in Africa, Asia, the Pacific Islands, and parts of Latin America and Europe, where priests, religious and lay leaders serve the world's most vulnerable communities. Please keep the Pope's mission in your prayers, and be generous in next week's collection for the Society for the Propagation of the Faith.
