FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

This weekend is the last in Ordinary Time on the Church's liturgical calendar. This time is not ordinary at all. It is marked with Sundays when we celebrate the Resurrection of Jesus from the dead and helps order our lives to this central mystery of our redemption. The last Sunday in OT is always celebrated as Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe. As we order our lives to Him, let us allow Him to be Lord over our lives, that is over our minds, hearts, desires, worries, concerns, over our time and resources that indeed we may seek to please our Lord and King in all things.

We keep this in mind as we prepare for the season of Advent next weekend. This reminds us that we welcome this King of the Universe as a vulnerable child, not a tyrant that seeks to lord anything over us.

In order to prepare ourselves to receive Jesus at Christmas, keep some dates in mind. Monday, December 10, is our Advent Penance Service at 7:00 p.m. at St. Rose. In addition to Fr. Daniel and myself, there will be four additional priests, so you can be as anonymous as you want. :) On Sunday, December 9, St. Joseph Cathedral is hosting a Lessons and Carols event at 3:00 p.m. This is sure to be a joyful and uplifting program, and can help you prepare spiritually for Christmas with scripture readings and familiar seasonal hymns and carols. Please save the dates of the evenings of Wednesday, December 19 and Thursday, December 20. On these evenings, we will have two important nights of prayer at St. Rose Church. I highly encourage all to attend. More information to come.

Finally, a reminder about the iGive Catholic Fundraiser on Tuesday. Please find the link on our website to find out how you can give to these causes:

- Church of the Atonement – Raising money for basement repairs
- St. Bernard – Raising money for general church improvements
- St. Patrick – Raising money for new parish vestments
- St. Rose – Raising money for a church sign

Thank you to our parish councils for helping identify these needs!

In Christ Jesus,
Fr. Hartge
