4th Sunday of Easter

Sunday Reflection

In The Hand of God

We all face obstacles in life. Perhaps it's a lost job, the death of a loved one, a sudden accident that places an unexpected dent in our finances. Sometimes the challenges are of our own making. Perhaps we've developed patterns of sin in our personal lives or our family relationships. We've all felt the jolting shock of, "This is all my fault." How do these things affect our relationship with God? Or, perhaps more poignantly, how do we now view God's relationship to us?

In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus' words to us are encouraging ones. "No one can take them out of my hand." Did you catch that? In case you didn't, Jesus reemphasizes the point again a few verses later. "My Father, who has given them to me, is greater than all, and no one can take them out of the Father's hand." God's grip of providential care and mercy is so strong that nothing can separate us. We might think things take us out of God's hand — life circumstances, tragedy, our lukewarm attitudes towards faith — but Jesus tells us otherwise. Nothing, no one, can take us out of the Father's hand, and we can't take ourselves out! We can't remove ourselves from Him, not entirely. (continued on page 3)

Mother's Day Prayer

Good and gracious God, creator of all good things
in the universe,
your Son, Jesus Christ,
loved his Mother
and modeled for us
how we should love
our mothers.

Bless all the women in our lives
who model for us the love of a mother.
Protect them and encourage them
to love as you have loved us.

Bless and protect those men in families who have no female partners and give them courage and strength to love their children in the absence of a mother.
We ask all this in your name. Amen.

From The Center

by Fr. Don Archambault, Pastor

With the Unleash the Gospel movement continuing in the Archdiocese of Detroit, Fr. Patrick and I felt inspired by the Holy Spirit to try something. We'd like to invite you as a parish family to pray, reflect and dialogue together about the vision for Corpus Christi going forward. It has been almost eight years since Corpus Christi set its most recent vision, mission and goals. While the mission and goals are still very good, we felt that our parish vision (to share Christ in and through the Church) would benefit from a change in light of the Unleash the Gospel movement that the Archdiocese is experiencing. It is an exciting Holy Spirit filled movement that we believe will continue to bear fruit for years to come.

We've designed a "Vision Packet" to help you 1) reflect upon Corpus Christi's current vision, mission and goals and 2) get a succinct yet accurate understanding of the Unleash the Gospel movement and its impact on vision for parishes seeking to thrive as joyful missionary disciples carrying out the Great Commission (Mt 28:18-20). You will find reflection questions throughout the packet to inspire thought about what the vision for Corpus Christi could be going forward. Vision comes from considering who we are and answering questions such as, "where are we going and what do we want our parish to look like in the years to come?" For example, "In five years, Corpus Christi will be a vibrant joyful city Church passionate about the healing presence of God."

We invite you to pick up a Vision Packet, pray your way through it, and dream big with Jesus! Then, we'd love to have you come to the Corpus Christi Vision Planning Session next Saturday, May 18th from 10 am to 1 pm in the Rainbow Room to enter into dialogue together in the Holy Spirit. If you are unable to attend (RSVP information forthcoming), simply submit your input in the "Transition" box in the back of Church and it will be read! Thank you abundantly for your time, consideration, care, and love for Corpus Christi! — Fr. Don

Sunday Reflection (continued from page 1)

Even when grievous sin hardens us to grace, His love is still sustaining us in existence. And His mercy is always awaiting our repentance.

"My sheep hear my voice; I know them, and they follow me. I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish." This Sunday, let us heed the voice of the Good Shepherd. Whatever we feel might take us from God's hand, we can turn back to Him. God is always inviting us to follow Him and to trust in His care and be sustained by His hand.

Church of the Home

■ Easter Joy At Home

Our Easter season theme at Corpus Christi Parish is "Unleash Easter Joy!" Christians are called to be joyful. The central message of the New Testament is joy. Happiness has do with what happens to you — joy is what happens inside you. Joy is deeper than happiness because it stays with you no matter how you are feeling at any given moment. Here are some ways to "unleash Easter joy" at home:

Five Joy-filled Scripture Passages

Hang these on your refrigerator or bulletin board to remind your family that we are called to live joyfully each and every day!

When Jesus was born, the angel said to the shepherds, "I proclaim to you good news of great joy." (Luke 2:10)

Jesus assured us that he came "so that my joy might be in you and your joy might be complete." (John 15:11)

St. Peter tells us that even though we have never seen Jesus, we believe in Him, and we "rejoice with an indescribable and glorious joy." (1 Peter 1:8)

St. Paul tells us to "rejoice in the Lord always." (Philippians 4:4)

One of the fruits of the Holy Spirit is "joy." (Galatians 5:22)

Faith Talk for Families

"The Resurrection of Jesus is the crowning truth of our faith in Christ, a faith believed and lived as the central truth by the first Christian community; handed on as fundamental by Tradition; established by the documents of the New Testament; and preached to us an essential part of the Paschal mystery."

— Catechism of the Catholic Church, No. 638

As a family, spend some time together discussing these questions:

Does Jesus' rising give you hope?

What is one way you can share the good news of the Resurrection this month?

Why is springtime a good season to celebrate Jesus' rising at Easter?

(excerpted from Take Out; Family Faith on the Go, Our Sunday Visitor)

■ Everyday Stewardship

When I was little, I would always cling to the same routine each night before going to bed. I would say to my parents, "Good night." They would respond, "Good night." I then would say, "See you tomorrow, okay?" I would await their response, and if they did not respond, I would say it again louder, "See you tomorrow, okay?" I somehow felt that if they did not assure me that I would see them tomorrow, it would possibly not happen. What would happen to me if I awoke and no one was there? It seems silly now, but to a small boy, it was very serious.

In our lives, many of us have somehow bought into the notion that there is so much in the world that can take us away from God. We believe that worldly values, immorality, or evil itself can take us away from God's love and protection. But there are few greater lies than this. The reality is that if we find ourselves (continued on page 7) far away from God, the only force that carried us away was our own choices.

In John's Gospel, Jesus said, "My sheep hear my voice; I know them, and they follow me... No one can take them out of my hand." Yes, we are tempted at every side, but no temptation can take us away from him. Unfortunately, sometimes after initial choices, we find ourselves in addiction or dependency, making our reconciliation with God impossible without the help of friends and loved ones. But make no mistake, no one or nothing can take those who are His sheep away from God.

When you think about this, you realize the importance of your actions. The power of your stewardship is great, because by utilizing your gifts, you determine if you will draw closer to or wander away from God. The world can't do that. The devil can't do that, nor can the wishful words of a little boy in the night.

Q At a parish council meeting, our pastor mentioned the need for deacons. It is something I am considering. How do I know if I have a vocation? What steps should I take next?

A Any and all gifts that the Holy Spirit gives to the church are for the good of the community. As members of the Body of Christ, what one member does affects all. What the body does also affects each member. A vocation or call to ministry is tested and verified by the church. Through prayer, instruction, and service, a vocation is tested, and then acknowledged by the official call to orders or to service.

If you are considering becoming a deacon, the first step would be to talk to your pastor. He will be able to give you more specific information on the program in your diocese, what is expected of you, and how you apply. You might also begin to see a spiritual director, someone who can help you with your faith journey and vocation discernment. They do so by focusing on prayer, your relationship with God, and spiritual practices. Finally, you'll need to see the diocesan vocation director in charge of deacons to apply. Best wishes!
