Community Weekend—Nametag Sunday

8th Grade Confirmation Students on Retreat

6:00 pm Community Mass (BILINGUAL)
The third work of mercy Jesus specifies is “welcome the stranger.” (Matt. 25:35.) Our loving God has always required hospitality, ever reminding His children of their fundamental solidarity: “The stranger who sojourns with you shall be to you as the native among you, and you shall love him as yourself; for you were strangers in the land of Egypt.” (Lv. 19:34.) God loves the stranger (Dt. 10:18), which is very reassuring, since we all, at one time or another, “a passing guest, a sojourner, like all my fathers.” (Ps. 39:12)

Welcoming the stranger is often hard, yet we know in our hearts that opportunities abound: the stranger on the street seeking help of some kind; the family member or neighbor with whom we don’t speak; those with a culture or language different from our own. We put ourselves out to get ready for visits with family and friends to make sure they are comfortable and feel loved, but do we put ourselves out to show the same hospitality toward the strangers we encounter, whomever and wherever they are? We should “put ourselves out” for Christ in all our brothers and sisters.

Mercy Challenge for the week: Smile and greet the strangers you encounter this week, don’t just walk by.

Panther Pause Gospel Reflection

This week we present the reflection of some of our 3rd Graders at St. Anne’s Catholic School.
What did the Gospel say to you?

“I think this gospel passage means to not get tempted by the devil and worship only one God. I think the gospel passage also means to not trust the devil in any way. It also means to not put anything before God in your life. It also means never obey the devil and disobey God always try to obey God.”

Tanner Grove, 3rd Grade

“I think this gospel passage means to listen to your heart and not do mean or bad things. In the gospel passage Jesus says, “one does not live on bread alone.” That means that you do not live all on food you live on God’s love too. The devil tries to tempt me too like the devil tempts me to hit my sister but I don’t.”

McKenzie Dobbins, 3rd Grade

Parish Lenten Mission

Mon., Feb. 15th—Thurs., Feb. 18th

In the Church

Who me? Why me? What should I do?
What should I say? Where should I go? But what if...?

If truth be told, by the time we are young adults we have asked God hundreds, if not thousands, of questions, particularly when we don’t know what to do. And why not? Who else should we turn to when we have questions if not to God?

This Lent however God wants to ask you a few questions of His own. Why would God, who knows everything already, want to ask me questions?

Abbot Damien will offer a reflection on 4 different questions (1 each night) that God Himself has asked in Sacred Scripture. These questions will encourage you, challenge you and draw you deeper into the love God has for you as you prepare for the solemn celebration of the Resurrection of Jesus. Join us for our Parish Mission this Lent!

Each evening will begin at 6:30pm with a Bilingual Mass and will be followed by a talk.

Ejercicios Espirituales de Cuaresma

Lunes, 15 de Febrero — Jueves, 18 de Febrero

En La Iglesia

¿Yo? ¿Por qué yo? ¿Qué debo hacer? ¿Qué debo decir? ¿Dónde debo ir? ¿Pero qué pasa si...?

La verdad es que cuando llegamos a ser adultos jóvenes le hemos hecho a Dios cientos, si no miles, de preguntas, especialmente cuando no sabemos qué hacer. Y ¿por qué no? ¿A quién más nos debemos de dirigir cuando tenemos preguntas si no a Dios?

Sin embargo, esta Cuaresma Dios nos quiere hacer unas preguntas. ¿Por qué Dios que ya lo sabe todo, me pregunta?

El Abad Damien ofrecerá una reflexión sobre 4 diferentes preguntas (1 cada noche) que Dios mismo ha preguntado en las Sagradas Escrituras. Estas preguntas le animará, retará y le llevará más profundamente en el amor que Dios tiene para usted mientras se prepara para la celebración solemne de la resurrección de Jesús. Únase a nosotros y participe en estos Ejercicios Espirituales de Cuaresma!

Cada noche comienza a las 6:30pm con una Misa bilingüe y será seguido por una plática.
