The History of Pentecost Sunday

The Acts of the Apostles recounts the story of the original Pentecost Sunday (Acts 2). Jews "from every nation under heaven" (Acts 2:5) were gathered in Jerusalem to celebrate the Jewish feast of Pentecost. On that Sunday, ten days after the Ascension of Our Lord, the Apostles and the Blessed Virgin Mary were gathered in the Upper Room, where they had seen Christ after His Resurrection:

And suddenly there came from the sky a noise like a strong driving wind, and it filled the entire house in which they were. Then there appeared to them tongues as of fire, which parted and came to rest on each one of them. And they were all filled with the holy Spirit and began to speak in different tongues, as the Spirit enabled them to proclaim [Acts 2:2-4].

Christ had promised His Apostles that He would send His Holy Spirit, and, on Pentecost, they were granted the gifts of the Holy Spirit. The Apostles began to preach the Gospel in all of the languages that the Jews who were gathered there spoke, and about 3,000 people were converted and baptized that day.

The Birthday of the Church

That is why Pentecost is often called "the birthday of the Church." On Pentecost Sunday, with the descent of the Holy Spirit, Christ's mission is completed, and the New Covenant is inaugurated. It's interesting to note that Saint Peter, the first pope, was already the leader and spokesman for the Apostles on Pentecost Sunday.

In years past, Pentecost was celebrated with greater solemnity than it is today. In fact, the entire period between Easter and Pentecost Sunday was known as Pentecost (and it still is called Pentecost in the Eastern churches, both Catholic and Orthodox). During those 50 days, both fasting and kneeling were strictly forbidden, because this period was supposed to give us a foretaste of the life of Heaven. In more recent times, parishes celebrated the approach of Pentecost with the public recitation of the Novena to the Holy Ghost. While most parishes no longer publicly recite this novena, many individual Catholics do.

We invite you to become involved in our faith formation conference and seek growth in our Catholic teachings. Let’s make this gathering a vibrant learning experience. The early bird registration deadline of June 30 is soon approaching; register as soon as possible to take advantage of the early bird registration fee of $65. Workshops are available both in English and Spanish. Lunch will be provided. Your participation is very welcome and appreciated.
ANointing of the Sick: If you are in need of anointing, even if you are homebound or hospitalized, contact the parish office at 802-2300. In an emergency situation when the office is closed, you will be directed to the emergency extension.

Baptisms: Baptisms are usually held on the second and fourth Saturday of each month. Parents and Godparents must attend a baptism class (OLLV’s class is usually the second Thursday bi-monthly). Once these requirements are met, you may then make an appointment with our Sacramental Administrator at 802-2300.

Holy Communion to the Homebound: If you are homebound or in a hospital and would like to receive holy communion, please contact the parish office 802-2300.

Food & Financial Assistance: Through the generosity of our parishioners, OLLV is able to help Catholic Charities of Southern Nevada in providing assistance to needy families. Please contact Catholic Charities at 385-2662.

Funerals: Once you have met with the funeral home or during your meeting with the funeral home, please call the parish office at 802-2300 and a staff member will coordinate with them to meet your needs.

Marriage: At least one party must be a registered active parishioner of a parish for at least 6 months before an appointment can be made with our Sacramental Administrator, 802-2300. Please contact the parish office as soon as possible as at least 6 months is necessary to fulfill the marriage preparation requirements.

Mass Intentions: Mass intention requests are scheduled through the parish office during office hours. If a specific date is desired, please schedule as far in advance as possible.

Parish Registration: Regardless of where you live, if you would like to join our parish, please register at the parish office. You may also request a parish registration form by calling the office at 802-2300 or email ollvparish@ollv.org or go to our on-line registration at www.ollvchurch.org.

In order that we may better serve you, please use your parish envelopes. This way you are known to us when requesting the services of the church. Please be aware that active registration is a requirement for many parish programs.

PRAYER LIST: If you know someone who is ill or in need of special prayers (not deceased), please contact the parish office at 802-2300 or email to ollvparish@ollv.org.

2019-2020 FALL ENROLLMENT

Are you thinking about joining the Catholic Church or learning more about it? Ask yourself these questions:

- Where is your journey of faith leading you?
- Are you interested in knowing more about the Catholic Faith?
- Do you know someone who might be interested?

If so, come and see what the RCIA process is all about. The Right of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is a process for non-Catholics who are interested in (or even thinking about) joining the Catholic Church. It’s also for those who have not received all of their Sacraments.

Each year our parish begins this process to welcome any and all who are curious about, interested in, or just want to know more about the Christian faith as it is lived and celebrated in the Roman Catholic Tradition.

ENROLLMENT BEGINS: June 3, 2019
PROCESS BEGINS: September 11, 2019
REGISTRATION FORM: A downloadable form is available at https://ollvchurch.org/becoming-catholic or in the Parish Office. Once you have filled out the registration form, Contact Julia Dodson at 702-802-2300.
