Dear friends,

In the wake of the recent Grand Jury ruling regarding the shooting of Michael Brown by Officer Wilson and the consequent rioting and looting in Ferguson, I read a powerful reflection by Fr. Dwight Longnecker entitled, “The Fires of Ferguson and the Dynamic of Blame.” It is worth our reading and meditation during this Season of Advent.

“The violence erupting in Ferguson, Missouri is not really about racial tension or socio economic inequality. It’s not about class struggle or police brutality or social injustice. It’s a symptom of a much deeper poison which I call the Dynamic of Blame. Rooted within every human heart is the stain of original sin. Now, when we think of “original sin” we usually think this means we have inherited a tendency toward selfish sinfulness simply by being human.

OK. That’s not wrong, but I want to dig deeper. When I say “original sin” I’m talking about the sin that was the origin of all sin This is the original sin—the sin which was at the beginning.

What sin was at the beginning? It was first the sin of pride which is to say, “I want to be like God.” That was the original temptation wasn’t it?

“Here…” says the Father of Lies “If you eat this fruit you will have wisdom and knowledge like God.”

So the original sin is to want to be like God. Everything else tumbles after that like dominoes. After the disobedience comes the culture of blame. Whenever someone calls us out our first instinct is to say, “It’s not my fault!”

The next instinct (if it is not my fault) is to find someone else who is at fault.

So God comes to Adam and says “Did you eat of the fruit the I told you not to eat?”

“She made me do it!”

Then the crunch. He actually blames GOD for the problem! “It was the woman you gave me…” In other words—“It’s your fault God. Not mine.”

So the story continues. “Eve did you eat of the fruit?”

“The devil made me do it.”

See? This is the original sin. It is always somebody else’s fault. “It’s the white man’s fault. It’s the black man’s fault. It’s the rich people. It’s the poor. It’s the immigrant. It’s the citizen. It’s the Republicans. It’s the Democrats. It’s the Muslims. It’s the Christians”. It’s the Jews. It’s the unemployed. It’s the employers.”

You see where it goes. Round and round and round and round it goes and where it stops everybody knows. It stops (or rather continues in the cycle of violence. If the problem is somebody else’s fault (you can see the logic) then that other person or group of people have to be destroyed. So the rampage and the revolutions begin. So the incarceration and the torture begin. So the wars and rumors of wars. So the beheading and crucifixions continue.

Now consider the Christian remedy. The very first thing you must do to be a disciple of Christ is to say, “It is my fault. Mea Culpa. Mea Culpa. Mea Maxima Culpa.”

Repentance is this brilliant and most amazingly original virtue that counters the original sin.

The Original sin is pride that says, “It is not my fault!” The original virtue is “My bad. Yes. It is my fault. I am not only going to take the blame. I am going to take the responsibility to put things right.”

Where in the violence in Ferguson—or anywhere else in the world—do we hear anyone saying, “I’m wrong and I’m going to do something about it”? This is the genius of true Christianity and this is what we call “faith”. That a person steps out of the safe little boat of blaming others to walk on the waves of taking the blame. Repentance as risk.

Where do we find the example and the support to take such a risk? By the transaction of faith whereby we look to Jesus Christ and say, “I want to be like that. I want to be one of the ones who takes the blame and takes the responsibility I want to be like that an claim that strength and know that Spirit.” People like that are rare. People like that live life in a different dimension. People like that are amazingly converted people, and when we once meet someone like that we know for sure that Christ is alive in the world because his willingness to take the blame, take the responsibility and bear the cross is alive in them.

So see the blazing hell of Ferguson and see the fires below where those who lodge there cry eternally, “It was not my fault! It was not my fault!”

Have a blessed and fruitful Advent.

Yours in Christ, Fr. Joseph Shea

¿Sabía Usted?
Seguridad de Santa
Aqui presentamos unas instrucciones sencillas para uso de los padres, guardianes y abuelos para asegurar que los ninos tengan una visita de Santa segura y alegre: Cuando su hijo/a esté con Santa, considere animarlo/a a pararse al lado de Santa o sentarse en el piso cerca de sus pies en lugar de sentarse sobre sus piernas. Déjele saber a su hijo/a que está bien decirle a Santa lo que quiere para Navidad, pero que también le digan a Mamá y Papá porque ellos también son ayudantes de Santa... Las sorpresas secretas son especiales, pero ningún adulto debe pedirle a un niño que tenga secretos con sus padres. Asegúrese que la visita de Santa sea en un espacio abierto, o que los padres, guardianes y abuelos estén incluidos en la actividad.

Did you Know?
Santa Safety
Here are some simple guidelines for parents, guardians, and grandparents to employ to make sure that children have a safe and happy visit with Santa’s helper: When your child is with Santa’s helper, consider encouraging him or her to stand next to Santa or sit on the floor between his feet rather than sitting on his lap. Let your child know that it’s okay to tell Santa what she or she wants for Christmas but that he or she should also tell mom and dad because they are also Santa’s helpers... Secret surprises are special but no adult should ask a child to keep secrets from the child’s parents. Make sure that the Santa visit is out in the open—or make sure that parents, guardians, and grandparents are included in the interaction. He who has a thing to sell and goes and whispers in a well, is not so apt to get the dollars as he who climbs a tree and hollers.
Para empezar: En el nombre del Padre, del Hijo y del Espíritu Santo. Amén.

Se enciende la vela del domingo anterior y se lee el Evangelio de san Marcos 10, 43-45: No ha de ser así entre vosotros; antes, si alguno de vosotros quiere ser grande, sea vuestro servidor; y el que de vosotros quiera ser el primero, sea siervo de todos, pues tampoco el Hijo del hombre ha venido a ser servido, sino a servir y a dar su vida en rescate por muchos. Ésta es palabra de Dios. Te alabamos, Señor.

Se enciende la segunda vela de Adviento.

Para reflexionar: Guardar unos minutos en silencio y hacer la siguiente pregunta: En nuestro hogar ¿cómo nos ayudamos unos a otros diariamente? Cada miembro de la familia, si lo desea, puede responder en voz alta la respuesta.

Propósitos: Después de la reflexión anterior, cada quien dirá cual será su propósito a cumplir en la semana.

Para orar: Padre, que nos has dado una familia en la que todos nos ayudamos y somos felices, te pedimos bendecir nuestros trabajos y tareas de todos los días para que cumplanmos con más ganas y alegría la tarea que nos toca hacer a cada uno de los miembros de esta familia en nuestro hogar. Amén. Para terminar: Todos los miembros de la familia se toman de las manos y rezan juntos un padrenuestro y se puede cantar la canción "Amar es entregarse"

Serving Those in Need

Me gustaría dar las gracias a todas las personas de Santa Rosa de Lima que han apoyado nuestro programa este año pasado. Actualmente estamos apoyando a 100-120 familias por semana. Al acercarnos al final del año nos estamos preparando para la celebración de Acción de Gracias y Navidad. Estamos en necesidad de los siguientes elementos: la mezcla para el relleno de pavo, "gravy", elote enlatado y verduras mixtas, etc. También trabajaremos con los Caballeros de Colón para colectar juguetes para la fiesta de Navidad de los niños. Que Dios los bendiga, Earl Todd

Serving Those in Need

I would like to thank all of the good people at St. Rose of Lima who supported our program this past Thanksgiving. As you may be aware, we are currently supporting 100-120 families per week. As we near the end of the year we are now preparing for Christmas. We are in need of the following items: stuffing mix, gravy, canned corn and mixed vegetables, etc. We will also work with the Knights of Columbus to collect toys for the children’s Christmas Party.

May God bless you, Earl Todd
