CHANGE OUR LIVES

In today’s first reading, Jonah, sent by God to warn the people, storms through Nineveh, frightening the citizens out of their wits. It works! They repent before Jonah makes his way through a third of the city, and God sees “by their actions” how they have turned from evil.

Then we hear Paul telling the Corinthians that “the world in its present form is passing away.” He calls for a change of heart. He stops short of telling them to set aside their everyday lives, but still he urges them—rather mysteriously—to live as though they aren’t doing the things they’re doing.

Finally, Jesus stands on the shore and cries, “The kingdom of God is at hand!” The apostles-to-be abandon their nets and follow him. Thus in all the readings we hear an invitation to a radical and immediate change in our lives.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

As a result of the reforms of the Second Vatican Council, the Church has defined a new pastoral plan for your care whenever you struggle with illness. There are rites for children, a communal rite for celebration in the parish, forms of care for the sick at each stage and transition, and for the desperately ill. There is a much broader interpretation of who may be anointed, including not only the visibly ill, but those battling addiction, or the elderly coping with the frustrating aches and pains of aging. Children under seven are normally not anointed, since the oil is associated with reconciliation. (For the same reason, they do not receive ashes on Ash Wednesday.) However, children close to that age who have a serious illness often gain a deep level of spiritual insight and maturity, and may benefit from catechesis for the Eucharist. Once admitted to confirmation and/or Eucharist, a sick child should be anointed. It is a great strength of our present rite that a section is included with prayers tailored to the experience and understanding of a child. Considering our recent history of being fairly sparing with this sacrament, the generosity of celebration today is helping us to retrieve an essential part of our tradition of reverence for the sick.

Defenseless 20-week old baby boys and girls are suffering intense pain here in the U.S. as abortionists rip their limbs from their bodies in legal abortions.

Incredibly our own United States of America is one of only seven countries in the world with legalized abortion-on-demand throughout all nine months of pregnancy. Not surprisingly, the anti-life regimes of China and North Korea are two of the others.

Killing a 20-week old child in a legal, elective abortion is a monstrous crime against humanity and cries out to heaven for vengeance.

Please support www.PriestsForLife.com in their efforts to rally Congress to end this practice.

WHY IS IT?
CAMBIEMOS NUESTRAS VIDAS

En la primera lectura de hoy, Jonás, enviado por Dios a dar advertencia al pueblo, atraviesa Nínive como un huracán, asustando grandemente a los ciudadanos. ¡Y funcionó! Ellos se arrepienten antes de que Jonás cruzara menos de la tercera parte de la ciudad, y Dios ve “por sus obras” que se han arrepentido del mal.

Luego oímos a Pablo que le dice a los corintios que “este mundo que ve mos es pasajero”. El les hace un llamado al cambio de corazón. Aunque no llega a decirles que cambien su vida cotidiana, sí les insta –un tanto misteriosamente– a vivir como si no hicieran lo que hacen de costumbre.

Finalmente, Jesús se detiene a la orilla del lago y grita, “¡El reino de Dios ya está cerca!” Los futuros apóstoles abandonan sus redes y le siguen. Así es que en todas las lecturas oímos una invitación a un cambio inmediato y radical de nuestras vidas.

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

En los años 70 y 80, Cesáreo Gabaráin compuso un sinnúmero de cantos bellísimos, para, mediante ellos, glorificar a Dios e instruir a los fieles. Entre sus cantos más famosos se encuentra “Pescador de hombres” (1979). Mezclando el llamado de los primeros discípulos, Gabaráin nos enseña en sus versos, que todos los cristianos somos llamados no sólo a seguir a Jesús, sino también a ser pescadores de personas para Cristo.

El famoso llamado de Pedro, Santiago, Juan y Andrés (Marcos 1:16-19; Mateo 4:18-22) se complementa con la pesca milagrosa (Lucas 5:1-11). Los discípulos escuchan la voz del maestro y abandonan todo para seguirlo. Al poco tiempo se encuentran pescando de nuevo, pero sin éxito. Otra vez aparece Jesús y les indica dónde echar las redes. Seguramente pensarían: “Y este carpintero, ¡qué sabe del oficio de pescar!” Pero echaron las redes, tal vez para comprobar que no había peces, o tal vez porque deseaban creer. Aún así, Jesús les llenó las redes, y de nuevo les llamó a la pesca de seres humanos para el Reino de su Padre. Y ellos dejaron todo a la orilla para seguirlo.

Do you struggle with living your faith at work? Is holiness possible? Does being ethical help or hurt the profitability of a business? These are just some of the questions Matthew Kelly answers in this presentation which was made to the Catholic Business and Ethics Conference.

New Year’s Resolutions?

Every year, it seems, we are inundated by the question, “What’s your New Year’s resolution?” You will hear from your friends that this is the year they are going to get in shape, by a new car, repair or end bad relationships, buck for that promotion at work, take that dream vacation, etc. The resolutions are usually about self-improvement - but the most important area of self-improvement that we rarely hear about is how we are going to improve our relationship with God.

Why is it that when we are in trouble – the first thing we do is to go to God with our needs and worries, but when God calls us through His Church and the sacraments, we seem to forget about Him? For too many of us, the extent of our relationship with God is to attend Mass on Sunday – when we can fit it into our schedule. We forget that we are required to attend Mass every Sunday and on Holy Days of Obligation.

We sometimes fall into the non-Catholic fallacy that all we need to do is go to God with our sins to confess in private – forsaking the Sacrament of Reconciliation. We must remember that on no less than three occasions in the Gospel, Jesus gave His Apostles, who were the first leaders of the Church, the power to bind and loose – to forgive or retain sins (Matt. 16:18-19, Matt. 18:12-15, John 20:21-23). When we are in a state of mortal sin – we are cut off from God’s grace until we confess that sin to a priest.

It’s never too late to get closer to God - the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit - by making changes in our lives. Here are some New Year’s Resolutions to consider that may be truly life-changing:

- Attend Mass at least every Sunday and on Holy Days of Obligation with our families
- Go to Confession once a month
- Become actively involved in the Pro Life movement to end the abomination of abortion
- Join a parish Bible Study
- Attend one or more parish-sponsored workshops
- Consider joining a parish Ministry by becoming a Lector, altar server, Extraordinary Minister of the Eucharist, joining the choir or one of the many other ministries
- Join the Knights of Columbus

Finding a New Year’s Resolution can be as easy as browsing through the Sunday Bulletin . . .
