To evangelize and share the Gospel, walk with one another on our journey of faith, and draw others into Christ’s one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

On the 3rd, 4th and 5th Sundays of Lent the Church celebrates the “Scrutinies” for the Elect (the unbaptized adults preparing for Baptism at the Easter Vigil). (Cycle A Readings for the 9 AM & 11 AM Masses.)

To “scrutinize” means to take a long and careful look at the ways we need to be healed and strengthened. In the Scrutinies, the Elect and the Community both acknowledge the power of evil that hinders them from following Christ, and the Elect give public witness to their ongoing conversion. Conversion is not about punishment for sin; it is about an all-loving, merciful God who offers to save us from sin. Conversion is an opportunity to change.

The First Scrutiny celebrated on the 3rd Sunday of Lent asks us to reflect on the readings and consider the following questions.

In what way have you experienced being an outcast?
Who have you made an outcast and why?
What are the deep thirsts of our world; Our society; Our Communities? What are my own deep thirsts? These are just a few of the questions the Elect have reflected on when they kneel before the altar today.

During the week after the 3rd Sunday of Lent, the Elect are presented with the Creed. The word “Creed” comes from the first word of the Latin document: “credo” meaning, “I Believe.” It is an ancient statement of faith that tells us what the early church believed and what we continue to believe today. During this Rite, the Elect are presented with the essential mysteries of our faith professed in the Nicene Creed and we ask God to purify the Elect to make them worthy to receive the grace of Baptism. The Creed will be presented at 6:45 PM, Wednesday, March 11th in the Church. The Parish Community is welcome to join us to show your ongoing support.

God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through him.

Because their angelic nature has been deformed and darkened by sin, devils now abuse their great gifts from God by using them to injure and destroy human beings. Their entire purpose is to see as many human beings as possible join them in rebelling against God and be separated forever from God in Hell.

Although demons have remarkable powers, we need to know that their powers are limited. For example, Satan and his cohorts cannot know the future unless God has revealed it. However, given their vast knowledge of events throughout the world and history, they can make accurate predictions and then act on them.

So, the devil is not an evil deity, equal in power to God who is eternal, all-powerful and all-knowing. Satan is only a creature and, in the end, he is no match for God, His Creator and ultimate Judge.

This raises one last question about devils and their demonic activity. If God is supreme and infinitely more powerful than Satan and his hosts, then why doesn’t God prevent them from doing evil on earth? We could ask the same question why God doesn’t stop human beings from committing wicked deeds.

The answer is twofold. First, it’s because God respects the free will of angels and humans. Second, evil’s continuing presence and activity among us is a mystery that we can’t fully figure out in this life. However, we can say this much: God allows evil because He is powerful enough to bring out of the greatest evil a much better good.

The crucifixion of Jesus Christ is the perfect example of this truth. According to the Gospel, when “Satan entered into Judas,” one of the 12 Apostles, Judas went out and betrayed Jesus (Luke 22:3-4). So, the worst evil we can ever imagine—the torture and murder of God’s innocent Son—occurred through the devil’s influence. Yet, the triumph of the empty tomb transformed the horror of the cross. Satan was forever thwarted. When Jesus rose from the dead, He displayed God’s power to bring out of the greatest evil an even greater good—the world’s redemption.

What was true for Jesus is true for us. Our time on this earth provides the battleground for God to test, purify, strengthen and perfect us in order to make us fit to live with Him forever in heaven. And, to that end, the devils serve as useful tools for God as they constantly test us so that we can become purer, stronger and closer to perfection every time we resist the devil’s temptations. Quoting St. Augustine, “As an artist, God makes use even of the devil.”

The second principle of spiritual warfare is: KNOW OUR ENEMY’S BATTLE TACTICS. The devil uses various tactics, both ordinary and extraordinary, in his demonic work.

The ordinary activity of the devil is subtle. It occurs within our thought life. The devil plants ideas within our minds to influence our reason, memory and imagination—and ultimately our will. Devils can suggest ideas through conversations, reading, or viewing certain images.

Most often, devils influence us through temptation by enticing us to sin. They get our attention through our thoughts to arouse our emotions in order to get us to act sinfully.

Devils tempt us in various ways. First, demons tempt us through deception. In John 8:44, Jesus called the Devil “a liar and the father of lies.” In Ephesians 6:11, the Apostle Paul speaks of the devil’s “wiles.” And again in his Second Letter to the Corinthians, 11:13, St. Paul states that Satan masquerades as an “angel of light.” Very often a lie stands at the heart of the temptation the devil presents. Remember how Satan deceived Eve in the Garden of Eden. When the serpent tempted her, he did so with lies about God’s motives and the consequences of sin (See Genesis 3:4-5). In a similar way, the devil lies to us telling us for example, “Go ahead. Do it. It can’t be sinful because everybody is doing it.”
Welcome to the St. Rose of Lima Catholic Community!
Our community has been greatly blessed through the years by the many families who call St. Rose home. We are nourished and renewed as we journey on the path to discipleship. If you are a new parishioner or are visiting we welcome you, and thank you for joining us on the path to Christ.
If you would like to make St. Rose of Lima your new parish home we invite you to register.
By registering you will receive church mailings, personalized offertory envelopes and information about seasonal liturgies and events. It also allows Fr. Shea and our parish staff to better serve our growing community.
To register you can visit our website at www.StRoseSV.com or stop by the rectory during office hours to pick up a form. If you have any questions please call the Rectory at 526-1732.

Forgiveness: Getting On With It – Not Easy but Possible
So many good people suffer from an inner uneasiness that simply will not go away. Often it is related to a seeming inability to forgive someone, something, even God and themselves.

The Word of God in the scripture and the prayers of forgiving can release us from the burden and grant us a new freedom.

Please join Sister Regina Robbins, SND on Tuesday, March 24, from 7:00 – 8:30 PM, as she guides us through an exploration of forgiveness and reconciliation as possible realities for everyone. The evening will take place at the Sisters of Notre Dame Center, 1776 Hendrix Avenue, Thousand Oaks 91360.

Please contact Sister Marie Paul Grech, SND at 805-496-3242 x 460 or Anne Interrante at 805-917-3712 by Friday, March 20 to make your reservation.

Porque su naturaleza angelical ha sido deformada y obscurecida por el pecado, los diablos ahora abusan de sus grandes regalos de Dios usándolos para dañar y para destruir a los seres humanos. Su único propósito es hacer caer a cuantas personas sean posible para que se unan a ellos en la rebelión contra Dios y ser separados para siempre de Dios en el Infierno. Aunque los demonios tienen poderes, necesitamos saber que sus poder es limitado. Por ejemplo, Satanás y sus colegas no pueden saber el futuro a menos que Dios lo haya revelado. Sin embargo, dado su conocimiento extenso de acontecimientos a través del mundo y de la historia, pueden hacer predicciones exactas y después verifican sus propias declaraciones. Sin embargo, podemos decir lo siguiente: Dios permite el mal porque El siendo todopoderoso puede traer de lo más malo algo grande y mucho mejor. La crucifixión de Jesucristo es el ejemplo perfecto de esta verdad.

Según el Evangelio, “Cuando Satanás entró en Judas,” uno de los 12 Apóstoles, Judas fue hacia fuera y traicionó a Jesús (Lucas 22:3 - 4). Así pues, el peor mal que podemos imaginar– la tortura y el asesinato del inocente Hijo de Dios ocurrió con la influencia del diablo. Todavía, el triunfo de la tumba vacía transformó el horror de la cruz.

Cuando Jesús resucitó dentro los muertos, El exhibió el poder de Dios al extraer del mayor mal algo tan bueno—la redención del mundo. Lo que fue cierto para Jesús es verdad para nosotros. Nuestro tiempo en esta tierra proporciona el campo de batalla para que Dios nos ponga a prueba, nos purifique, fortifique y nos perfeccione para que podamos vivir con El por siempre en el cielo. Y así que los diablos sirven como herramientas útiles para Dios mientras ya que nos prueban constantemente y de modo que nos dan la oportunidad para ser más puros, más fuertes y más cercano a la perfección cada vez que nos oponemos a las tentaciones del diablo. Como dijo San Agustín, “Como artista, Dios utiliza incluso al diablo.”

El segundo principio de la guerra espiritual es: CONOZCA LA TÁCTICA DE NUESTRO ENEMIGO. El diablo utiliza varias tácticas, ordinarias y extraordinarias, en su trabajo diabólico. La actividad ordinaria del diablo es sutil. Ocurre dentro de nuestro pensamientos. El diablo planta ideas dentro de nuestras mentes para influir en la razón. Los diablos pueden sugerir ideas con conversaciones, lectura, o ciertas imágenes. Mas a menudo los diablos nos influyen tentándonos para que pequeños Consiguen nuestra atención con nuestros pensamientos para despertar nuestras emociones para conseguir que pequeños. Los diablos nos tientan de varias maneras. Primero, los demonios nos tientan con el engaño. Jesús llamó al diablo “un mentiroso y el padre de mentiras”

En Ef 6:11, el Apóstol San Pablo habla de como el diablo se disfraza como un el “ángel de la luz” Muy a menudo hay una mentira en el corazón de la tentación que el diablo presenta. Recuerda cómo Satanás engañó a Eva en el jardín de Edén. Cuando la serpiente le tentó, él hizo con mentiras acerca de los motivos de Dios y las consecuencias del pecado (véase la Génesis 3:4 - 5). De una manera similar, las mentiras del diablo a nosotros que nos dicen por ejemplo, “Procede. Hazlo. No puede ser pecado ya que todos lo están haciendo”
