Earl Todd

Introducing Fr. Dave Heney

I am very happy to be here at St. Rose of Lima parish! Here is some background information about my assignment here.

In 2014, I completed my twelve year term as Pastor of St. Paschal’s in Thousand Oaks and began a one year sabbatical from the Archdiocese to write two practical “How-to” manuals for parish priests. The first is on parish leadership and the second describes how to set up an effective adult education program like the University Series.

I started the University Series in this area in 2002 and it has grown from two parishes to now eleven. In the last several years it has attracted over 11,000 attendees representing around 3,000 individual people attending multiple classes every year during the Season of Lent. (See universityseries.org) That sabbatical year finished last week.

Archbishop Gomez wants to make the University Series a reality across the Archdiocese, and has asked me to help spread this educational program across our Archdiocese.

Therefore, during this next year, I will reside for one year in residence at St. Rose of Lima parish, and will visit pastors around the Archdiocese for the purpose of establishing University style regional programs in their areas.

Of course, I will also assist in parish activities at St. Rose as much as I can, with confessions, weekday Masses, and Sunday Masses. Our pastor, Fr. Joe Shea, is my classmate from our ordination year of 1978 and a longtime friend, and also a longtime supporter of the University Series. I am glad to serve alongside my friends Fr. Bill and Fr. Jim as well.

Next July, I will be reassigned again as normal to wherever the Archbishop deems best for the needs of the Archdiocese.

I am profoundly grateful to be here at St. Rose, as well as to help develop practical and useful Catholic adult educational programs in other areas.

I will, of course, continue my weekly Gospel reflections and articles on biblical archaeology at my website at daveheney.com, and especially timely articles that connect our faith with real life. I very much enjoy discovering the many ways that our faith provides for a happier life!

God bless!

La seguridad durante el verano es clave para los niños y sus padres

Todos los maestros, empleados y voluntarios de la Arquidiócesis que trabajan con menores deben someterse a una verificación de antecedentes penales y huellas digitales. Solo el año pasado, la Oficina de Protección a los Niños entrenó a 30,514 adultos y 166,850 niños en los programas VIRTUS® de Prevención del Abuso Sexual de Menores. Si sus hijos van a participar en actividades de verano fuera de la Arquidiócesis, asegúrese que la organización o campamento haya verificado los antecedentes penales y las referencias de todos sus empleados. TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

Los evangelios relatan que Jesús envió a los Doce apóstoles y también a otros setenta y dos discípulos (Marcos 6:7; Lucas 10:1) “de dos en dos” a “todos los pueblos y lugares”. De esta manera le preparaban el camino. El libro del Eclesiastés (4:9-12) subraya lo sabio que es andar de dos en dos a fin de ayudarse y protegerse mutuamente. El autor lamenta: “¡Pobre del que está solo, cuando se cae, no tiene quien lo levante!”.

Los cristianos nunca podemos ser cristianos a solas. A Jesús le gustan los grupos. No tenemos el lujo de ser individualistas o autosuficientes. Nuestra misión requiere que vayamos por el mundo de dos en dos, porque donde están dos o tres reunidos en el nombre de Jesús, allí estará él (Mateo 18:20). En el Génesis (7:2) Noé se lleva los animales de dos en dos, así las especies se volverán numerosas comenzando de dos en dos. Jesús envía sus discípulos de dos en dos para que nos amemos y ayudemos los unos a los otros y de esta manera los que vienen después de nosotros, sean tan numerosos como las estrellas del firmamento (Génesis 15:5).

In one of his most focused talks to date, Stephen Ray discusses salvation, the authentic biblical understanding of being "born again", and how we are saved by faith, but not "faith alone". With great humor and doctrinal depth, he goes all the way back to Abraham to show that we are saved by faith and obedience to all that Christ demands of us.

Parishioner Comments:
"The best talk I've ever heard on being 'born again' and on salvation!" - Gary Michuta
So full of insight! Stephen gives a fantastic explanation of how disobedience is the opposite of belief, and all according to scripture! - Donna

Some Popular Catholic Myths Part 3

We are Saved by our Works
Not exactly. The Church teaches – and has always taught that we are saved by God’s grace. The Scriptures assure us that we as Christians are ALREADY SAVED (Rom. 5:1, 8:24, Eph. 2:5–8). This is Initial Salvation – God gives us the initial grace to believe.

However, because Salvation is a lifelong process – it also says that I am BEING SAVED (1 Cor. 1:8, 2 Cor. 2:15, 7:1, Phil. 2:12, Heb 12:14). This is Ongoing Sanctification – God is sanctifying us throughout our life as we cooperate with his grace.

Because of this, I have the hope that I WILL BE SAVED (Matt. 24:13, Rom. 5:9–10, 1 Cor. 3:12–15). This is Final Sanctification/Salvation – We die and go to heaven having endured to the end.

This cooperation and endurance is based on our DOING the will of God (Matt. 7:21-23, Matt. 25:31–46). Faith is not simply “believing” in God. James 2:19 states that even the demons believe and tremble. Our cooperative works are part of our faith – not merely an addendum to it.

The Catholic Church hates homosexuals
On the contrary – the exact opposite is true. While it is true that the Catholic Church condemns the homosexual act, as we read in Scripture (Lev. 18:22, 20:13, Rom. 1:26-7), homosexuals themselves are our fellow human beings deserving of the same dignity that is given to all people.

However, simply because every human is to be respected as a person, this does not mean that we are to condone their sin any more than we would condone the actions of bank robbery or rape or murder.
