*Occasionally the Celebrant may change.
Dear friends,

Last Sunday (August 23) was a wonderful day as we celebrated the feast of St. Rose of Lima. First, I want to tell you briefly about our patroness. For those who may not know, St. Rose of Lima was the first canonized saint of all the Americas (South America, Central America and North America). Her real name was Isabel, but she was such a beautiful baby that she was called Rose, and that name remained.

As she grew older, she became more and more beautiful. One day, her mother put a wreath of flowers on her head to show off her loveliness to friends. But Rose had no desire to be admired, for her heart had been given to Jesus. So she put a long pin into that wreath. It pierced her scalp so deeply that she had a hard time getting the wreath off afterward. Another time she became afraid that her beauty might be a temptation to someone since people could not take their eyes off her. Therefore, she rubbed her face with pepper until it was all red and blistered.

St. Rose worked hard to support her poor parents and she humbly obeyed them, except when they tried to get her to marry. She was determined to take a vow of virginity, which her parents opposed. They wanted her to get married, but she rejected all suitors that her parents arranged. She had promised her life to Christ and wanted to serve Him with all her heart, mind, soul and body. Finally, out of frustration, her father gave her a room to herself in the family home.

St. Rose spent many hours contemplating the Blessed Sacrament, which she received daily, an extremely rare practice in that period. She fasted daily and later permanently abstained from eating meat. She only allowed herself to sleep two hours a night at most, so that she had more hours to devote to prayer. She donned a heavy crown made of silver, with small spikes on the inside, in emulation of the Crown of Thorns worn by Christ. Her love of Jesus was so great that when she talked about Him, her face glowed and her eyes sparkled.

St. Rose helped the sick and hungry around her community, bringing them to her room and taking care of them. Rose sold her fine needlework, and took flowers that she grew to market, to help her family. She made and sold lace and embroidery to care for the poor, and she prayed and did penance in a little grotto which she had built. Otherwise, she became a recluse, leaving her room only for her visits to church.

She attracted the attention of the friars of the Dominican Order. She wanted to become a nun, but her father forbade it. Instead she entered the Third Order of St. Dominic while living in her parents' home. In her twentieth year she donned the habit of a tertiary and took a vow of perpetual virginity.

For eleven years she lived this way, with intervals of ecstasy and temptations from the devil. Many times she had to suffer a feeling of terrible loneliness and sadness, for God seemed far away. Yet she cheerfully offered all these troubles to Him. In fact, in her last long, painful sickness, this heroic youngwoman use to pray: "Lord, increase my sufferings, and with them increase Your love in my heart."

She died on August 24, 1617, at the young age of 31. It is said that she prophesied the date of her death. Her funeral was held in the Cathedral, attended by all the public authorities of Lima. Many miracles followed her death. She was canonized in 1671 by Clement X. She is always pictured wearing a crown of roses and carrying a cross.

I also want to take this opportunity to thank all those who helped put on our wonderful BBQ and family film for all the parishioners. In particular, I want to thank Tony Bonomo and his crew of Knights of Columbus (purchasing and cooking the BBQ), George and Sandi Lemos and Tony and Loretta Lemos (salad, chips watermelon and ice cream), Bob Smith and his crew for the set up of the big outdoor screen, the projector and sound system for our family film, and Adam Cross and the Young Adult and Youth Ministry for set up and clean up. I am truly grateful to all of them for making the feast day of our patroness so wonderful. May God bless them and all of you.

Yours in Christ,

Fr. Joseph Shea

The Mystery of the Mass Revealed
Altaration addresses head-on one of the biggest problems we all face: how do we get more Catholics to appreciate the awesome beauty and mystery of the Mass…and to actually look forward to attending and participating?
Through a unique learning experience, including powerful cinematography and workbook resources, You will come to see the Mass and the priesthood in a dramatically new way. Altaration is designed to stir thought, create conversation, dispel myths, and inspire souls to a deep and lasting love for the Mass. The goal of Altaration is not to fill our heads with information but to pierce our hearts with transformation.
This is a five session DVD series in which we will view the video and have a discussion afterwards. This series will be held in Room 8 on Thursdays from 7-9pm starting Thursday, September 17, 2015.

¿Sabia Usted?
Enseñe a sus hijos a respetar sus límites personales. Enseñar a sus hijos sobre la importancia de los límites personales y el espacio personal les ayudará a desarrollar buenas relaciones. Los niños deben sentirse cómodos en cualquier situación y ser capaces de expresar cómo y cuándo les gusta ser abrazados y acariciados. Si un niño se encuentra en una situación incómoda, un adulto de confianza debería resolver la situación inmediatamente. Como padre, usted debe respaldar los límites establecidos por su hijo con amigos y familiares. WHY IS IT?

A man wakes up after sleeping under an ADVERTISED blanket on an ADVERTISED mattress and pulls off ADVERTISED pajamas, bathes in an ADVERTISED shower, shaves with an ADVERTISED razor, brushes his teeth with ADVERTISED toothpaste, washes with ADVERTISED soap, puts on ADVERTISED clothes, drinks a cup of ADVERTISED coffee, drives to work in an ADVERTISED car, and then refuses to ADVERTISE believing it doesn’t pay. Later if business is poor he ADVERTISES it for sale.

WHY IS IT?
Showing Proper Reverence For The Blessed Sacrament

It is a sad thing to see in many Catholic Churches. Irreverence toward the Holy Eucharist seems to be commonplace. As the Catechism states, “The Eucharist is “the source and summit of the Christian life” (1324). You would never know this by witnessing some of the ways our Lord is disrespected in Catholic Churches all over the world. To truly understand why great reverence must be paid to the Holy Eucharist, we must first understand what it is.

The Holy Eucharist is nothing less than the Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, who was crucified for our sins and rose from the dead, giving us the hope of eternal life. The Early Church paid so much reverence to this fact that they were deemed “cannibals” by their pagan Roman counterparts and were systematically butchered for this belief.

On any given day in a Catholic Church, you may see people lined up to receive the Blessed Sacrament giggling or chatting with one another. You might witness a person with a purse or car keys in hand waiting to dash out as soon as they are given our precious Lord in Holy Communion. Some simply stick their hand out as if receiving a piece of candy, responding with a brief, “Thank you”, instead of declaring “Amen”. Others will try to walk back to their pew to consume the Lord there, while others will attempt to take the Eucharist home to give to a sick relative or friend or simply keep it in their homes. ALL of these instances are scandalous and disgraceful as they all fail to show the proper respect and reverence we are to have for our Lord.

The proper way to receive Communion is to first ensure that we are prepared to receive – making certain that we are not in a state of mortal sin, as knowingly receiving in this state is a sacrilege (CCC 2120) which compounds our existing mortal sin. We must approach the Blessed Sacrament with all due reverence, bowing or genuflecting before we receive it. If we receive in the hand, we are to make a “throne” with our hands, placing one under the other, responding with, “Amen”. Then, taking hold of the Eucharist with the hand from underneath, we are to consume it immediately. There is no need to make the sign of the cross, genuflect or bow toward the empty tabernacle at this point because we have the ultimate substance – Jesus Christ within us. We then, return to our seats, reflecting and meditating on the awesome miracle we have just taken part in.

Jesus said, “Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him on the last day. For my flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink” (John 6:54-55). Are we showing him the proper reverence he deserves – or are we simply going through the motions?
