Dear friends,

Congratulations!

We did it. We just crossed over the $380,000 goal so that the parish can purchase the house on Pride Street. I am so grateful to all of you who were able to donate. The Archdiocesan Real Estate Office is taking care of the transaction as I write this pastor’s letter. We should be able to take possession of the home in late June.

If you still can donate to this cause, I would appreciate your generosity because we still will need more money to: 1) clean up the house; 2) have an architect design an addition to the house to accommodate the priests who will be living there; and 3) build the addition. All that will be in the future as soon as we can raise the additional money. But we could do none of the above if we hadn’t raised the money to purchase the house.

I am so proud of you that we were able to accomplish this goal in such a short time.

I truly am so blessed to be your pastor.

May God bless you!

Gratefully yours in Christ,

Fr. Joseph Shea

RETIREMENT FUND FOR ARCHDIOCESAN PRIESTS

June 11th & 12th

Priests are selfless sources of inspiration, wisdom and comfort who dedicate their lives to guiding us through daily sacraments as well as life’s most extraordinary events. From the joyous celebrations of baptism and marriage through anointing the sick and mourning our losses, they stand beside us. With minimal compensation and little or no pension, they often retire with nothing to fall back on. What better way to offer thanks and gratitude to those who have given so much to us and continue to serve our communities long after their administrative duties are fulfilled. Let us make a little sacrifice and show them how much we appreciate the sacrifices they have made by contributing to the Retirement Fund for our Archdiocesan Priests Retirement Fund. Thank you for your support.
All are welcome.

We welcome all new parishioners and are thankful God has sent you to us.

HOPE AND LIFE

Today’s readings tell the story of two widows. The first reading relates the plight of the widow with whom the prophet Elijah stayed; the Gospel tells about the widow of Nain. In each story, the widow’s only son had died. For people who lived in those cultures, the son was the only support of a widow, and the carrying on of the family name by the son was equal to immortality. A widow whose only son has died could lose all hope.

Elijah and Jesus are the restorers of hope; they bring the sons back to life. Saint Paul was metaphorically raised from the dead when he experienced the conversion and call from God that he describes in today’s second reading.

What are Christians called to do today? We may not be able to raise the dead, but perhaps we can rekindle hope for a single parent. We may not be able to convert a persecutor like Paul, but if we speak the gospel openly and gently with our lives, we might touch a life with the Good News. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

We invite you to come and learn what the Church teaches, and be introduced to some of our parish members. These sessions also are opportunities for you, and others that you may wish to invite, to ask those perplexing and difficult questions you may have about the Church. The inquiry sessions are on Wednesday evenings. Feel free to come and join us. If you have questions or seeking further information, please call Julia at 805-915-4625 or email at julia@strosesv.com. Implement safety rules for kids going to summer camp

Summer camp is a time-honored tradition for kids. Whether it’s an all-day camp or cabin sleepaway, kids can get out of the house, learn new skills, and make friends. Parents who send their kids off to camp should be sure to research the camp and the counselors who will be watching their kids. If your child is going to sleep-away camp, check in by phone or mail regularly. Ask questions and ensure that your child is safe and cared for at any camp. For a copy of the VIRTUS® article “Summer Camp Preparation” email jvienna@la-archdiocese.org or call (213) 637-7227.

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

En 1910, cuatro años antes de iniciar el Día de las Madres, el pueblo de Estados Unidos empezó a celebrar ocasionalmente un día para los padres de familia. Pero, no fue hasta 1972 que se fijó un día oficial para el papá. Poco a poco esta fecha del segundo domingo de junio se ha ido expandiendo al resto del mundo con algunas excepciones. En Italia por ejemplo, la fiesta del padre se celebra el 19 de marzo, día de san José.

Durante la Revolución Industrial del siglo diecinueve, José, esposo de María recibió su primera fiesta oficial. La Iglesia, preocupada por el ingreso del padre a las fábricas, propuso a este santo varón como ejemplo de lo que los padres deben ser en la vida de sus hijos e hijas; ejemplos de fe, ternura y trabajo. Aún en nuestro tiempo, el Rito del Bautismo de niños insiste que el padre, junto con la madre, deben ser los mayores maestros de sus hijos. Al igual que José, el papá debe cuidar y proteger a su familia, enseñarles a trabajar y ser honestos para el bien de la familia y la sociedad.
