GO AND DO LIKewise

Miss Collins, the dean of students at Olympic High School, was past the point of scolding Matt, though she liked him very much. “Four detentions in two weeks are too many.”

Still Matt wouldn’t tell. It was only after Miss Collins went on a morning neighborhood patrol that she found out the real reason for Matt’s tardiness. Thump, thump, thump, came the wheelchair down the stairs. It was Matt, steadying Shawnetta as he helped lower her down the stairs and then push her to the corner bus stop.

“She’s a girl in my parish youth group,” Matt explained to Miss Collins.

There are many ways to describe Matt’s actions—a random act of kindness, making a difference one person at a time. Jesus would understand. When the lawyer correctly identified the good Samaritan as the one who had treated the injured man with compassion, Jesus said simply, “Go and do likewise” (Luke 10:37).

Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Christ Jesus . . . is the head of the body, the church.
— Colossians 1:15, 18

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The first “presbyters” were advisers to the bishops rather than what we would call “priests,” yet by the year 1000 our present-day understanding of the ordained priesthood is clearly in place. The Germanic influence was strong in those days, reflected in a series of questions posed to the candidate about his intentions.

The priest’s role in the celebration of Mass had by then come to the fore, as the ritual notes that Mass vestments must be worn, the hands of the priest must be anointed with chrism, and a chalice with wine and water and a paten with a host must be given. Up to then, the ordination rite had stressed the presbyter as a collaborator with the bishop and a member of the order of presbyters. Then, in a not-so-subtle shift, the presbyter came to be seen as a “priest” designated to celebrate the Mass and, as the prayer suggests, to touch the chalice. By these days, remember, the cup had long vanished from Communion for the laity. A thousand years ago, today’s patterns were already in place. The priest no longer saw himself as a member of a council of elders, a presbytery, and in some dioceses he had little influence over the bishop. Instead, he was either a pastor, with relationship to the eucharistic community in the parish, or he was a priest monk, offering Mass for the salvation of the departed or the intentions of the living.

Who is my neighbor?

Anger Management Classes

Monthly Anger Management Meetings Starting August 3, 2016

Do you know a friend, or relative who struggles with anger? You may not have to look any further than your own mirror. We all know what anger is, and we have all felt it. We all get angry sometimes, but anger, when it is not controlled and managed properly, it gets out of control and turns destructive. It can lead to problems—problems in your personal relationships, at work, and in the overall quality of your life. We can do things we regret when we are angry.

Ephesians 4:26 tells us, “In your anger do not sin. Do not let the sun go down while you are still angry.” Come learn how to switch off your anger temperament so you don’t sin when you get angry, or go to bed still angry.

Our monthly anger management class meets with Dr. Bennett Annan, Ed.D., a National Anger Management Association (NAMA) certified anger management specialist, CAMS-I, and certified domestic violence specialist, CDVS-I. Classes are held on the first Wednesday of each month beginning August 3, 2016 from 7:00-9:00pm in room 11 of St. Rose of Lima School. For further information contact Wally Conway at (805) 915-8008 or Email: wallyconway@century21.com

The negative consequences of underage drinking are more widespread and serious than previously known. Research shows that alcohol can change the way the brain works and could lead to long-term consequences. Many more dangers of underage drinking are immediate, including alcohol poisoning, physical assault and poor decision making. You can help protect your children from the risks associated with drinking by maintaining open communication, and by expressing a clear, consistent message that underage drinking is unacceptable. SABIA USTED?

El consumo de alcohol de menores de edad resulta en peores problemas. Las consecuencias negativas del consumo de alcohol por menores de edad son más extensos y serios de lo que se pueda saber. Estudios muestran que el alcohol puede cambiar la forma en que el cerebro funciona y puede dar lugar a consecuencias de largo plazo. Muchos más daños del consumo de alcohol por menores de edad son inmediatos, incluyendo envenenamiento por alcohol, asalto físico y malas decisiones. Usted puede proteger a sus hijos de los riesgos asociados con tomar manteniendo una comunicación abierta, y expresando un mensaje claro y consistente de que el consumo de alcohol en menores de edad es inaceptable. ANDA Y HAZ TÚ LO MISMO

La señorita González, la decana de los estudiantes de la Escuela Secundaria Olimpo, ya estaba cansada de regañar a Mateo, a pesar de que le caía muy bien. “Cuatro castigos después de clase en dos semanas es demasiado”.

Sin embargo Mateo permanecía en silencio. Sólo después de que la señorita González fuera en una ronda matutina por el vecindario descubrió la verdadera razón de las tardanzas de Mateo. Pataplún, cayó la silla de ruedas por las escaleras. Era Mateo, sujetando a Dolores mientras ayudaba a que la bajaran por las escaleras y luego la empujaba hasta la parada de autobús.

“Es una chica de mi grupo de jóvenes de la parroquia” Mateo le explicó a la señorita González.

Hay muchas formas de describir las acciones de Mateo –un acto de bondad al azar, marcar una diferencia en la vida de una persona a la vez. Jesús entendería. Cuando el abogado identificó correctamente al buen samaritano como el que había tratado al hombre herido con compasión, Jesús simplemente dijo: “Anda y haz tú lo mismo” (Lucas 10:37)

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

Desde 1913, en la ciudad de Puntarenas, Costa Rica, la Virgen del Carmen es reconocida como la Virgen del Mar. En aquel año un barco llamado el Galileo naufraga en una tempestad y el pueblo angustiado por sus seres queridos recurrió al templo de la Virgen para pedir auxilio. Algunos días después todos los tripulantes fueron rescatados y llevados a Puntarenas. Según los tripulantes, mientras las lluvias y vientos amenazaban al Galileo una mujer los animó a que se echaran al agua y nadaran a tierra firme. Allí ella los alimentó y los acompañó hasta que fueron rescatados.

Llenos de alegría, el pueblo llevó a los rescatados a la iglesia para dar gracias. Estos reconocieron a la Virgen del Carmen como la mujer que los había ayudado. Desde entonces el sábado más cercano al 16 de julio, el pueblo celebra en grande la fiesta del Carmen con grandes desfiles de barcos y yates. Entre música y fuegos artificiales los costarricenses vienen en embarcaciones adornadas desde toda la nación a celebrar con la Virgen del Mar que también se encuentra en una embarcación.

ANDA Y HAZ TÚ LO MISMO

La señorita González, la decana de los estudiantes de la Escuela Secundaria Olimpo, ya estaba cansada de regañar a Mateo, a pesar de que le caía muy bien. “Cuatro castigos después de clase en dos semanas es demasiado”.

Sin embargo Mateo permanecía en silencio. Sólo después de que la señorita González fuera en una ronda matutina por el vecindario descubrió la verdadera razón de las tardanzas de Mateo. Pataplún, cayó la silla de ruedas por las escaleras. Era Mateo, sujetando a Dolores mientras ayudaba a que la bajaran por las escaleras y luego la empujaba hasta la parada de autobús.

Hay muchas formas de describir las acciones de Mateo –un acto de bondad al azar, marcar una diferencia en la vida de una persona a la vez. Jesús entendería. Cuando el abogado identificó correctamente al buen samaritano como el que había tratado al hombre herido con compasión, Jesús simplemente dijo: “Anda y haz tú lo mismo” (Lucas 10:37)
