GOD’S PLAN FOR US

Stewardship is the most misunderstood word in the English language. If you were to ask most people in the church what stewardship means they would say “Money” or “Tithing” or “Giving.” But stewardship is not a financial program. Stewardship is the second greatest theme of the Bible. It is taught from the Book of Genesis to the last book of the Bible, the Book of Revelation. Jesus talked more about stewardship than He did about heaven or hell or prayer or many other things. Nearly half of Jesus’ parables are about stewardship. In fact, one out of every six verses in the gospels has to do with stewardship.

In the Webster’s dictionary, “Stewardship” is defined as “the responsibility of managing the assets or affairs or property of someone else.” Stewardship means managing something that isn’t your own. The key word in that definition is the word "management". If you've ever been a manager in a business position, your work involves stewardship.

To understand stewardship, we have to go back to the very beginning of time. Genesis 1:1 gives us the first principle of stewardship. "In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth..." This means that God owns everything. He owns every plant, every rock, every animal, every person, and everything. The Bible says, "The heavens declare His glory... The earth is the Lord's and the fullness thereof."

God not only owns everything, but God also sustains it. The Bible tells us in Colossians that God holds everything together. He keeps the planets, stars and galaxies in line. God owns it because He made it and He sustains it.

Everything that God created, God created “good” and for a specific purpose, especially man and woman. "God blessed them and said to them [talking to man and woman] 'Be fruitful and increase in number. Fill the earth. Subdue it. Rule over the fish of the sea and the birds of the air and over every creature that moves on the ground.'" The Bible says that God made man and woman to be the caretakers of the world, to be the managers, and to be the stewards of all the resources that God had created.

Notice what God said, "Here's what I want you to do." First, He said "... be fruitful and increase." That's the only command man's ever been able to keep. But then God says, "Fill the earth, subdue it, rule over it, (2:15) work it, take care of it. All of those five things God expects of man. Those are his job description. That can be summed up in one word -- management. God created man and woman to be the managers of His creation. This is the second principle of stewardship.

We were made to manage the resources that God put on the earth, to rule over things, to subdue it. Our basic problem today is we forget what we were created for. We forget our purpose. We go out and manage what God has given and created, and then pretty soon we start thinking we own it. We trade places with God. We start using words like my and I and mine... my life, my plans, my possessions, my time. We get it all mixed up and reversed it. Now things rule over us. We're possessed by possessions. God says, "It's foolish to make your number one goal in life simply the acquisition of things. I'm just loaning them to you for a short time anyway. You're going to be here 60, 70, 80, 90 years. I'll loan them to you. You can manage them. You can use them. You can enjoy them. But then you're going to die and you're going to come into eternity and I'm just going to loan them to somebody else." You don't own anything, really. They're on loan. After we die, God passes them on to somebody else.

The Bible teaches that God made us in His image. He's put us on earth and says "Now make the most of what I've given you." Make the most of your life. Make the most of your time. We got it all mixed up and reversed it. Now things rule over us. We're possessed by possessions. God says, "I provide the raw materials. And I've given you the ability to create, now do something. Be my managers on earth"

Stewardship, when you get down to it, is simply partnership with God. I Corinthians 3:9 says "We are laborers together with God." We work with God. We're partners with Him. If you ever get that concept in your heart and really grasp it, it will revolutionize your life. When you understand that God made it all and He put me here to be the manager of it.

What are the immediate benefits of being a wise steward? First, your happiness will be in proportion to your faithfulness in the stewardship of all the things that God has given you. The better steward you are the greater your happiness. How? For instance, if God has given you a talent and you don't use it, you'll be unfulfilled in life. If God has given you wealth and you spend it in the wrong way, you will be under tension and pressure and anxiety and worry. Every time we mismanage what God has entrusted to our care, it produces negative results. On the positive side, when we are wise managers, we enjoy things and find deep fulfillment and satisfaction.

Second, the more faithful we are in managing everything that God has blessed us with, the more He trusts to us and the more we're blessed. Jesus told us: “You've been faithful in a few things; I'll make you faithful in more.” So there are immediate benefits to stewardship in my life.

There are also some future benefits. The Bible teaches that our rewards in eternity will be based on how we managed what God trusted us with here on earth. Our stewardship on earth is really just a preparation for greater partnership with God. Romans 14:12 "One day every one of us will give an account before God of our stewardship" -- our management, how we handle all of the things that God blessed us with. At that point God will look at us and if we've been faithful and used it wisely, we will be rewarded proportionally.
God first, others second, I am third.”

NEW MINISTRY

Anger Management Ministry

Monthly Anger Management Meetings from 7:00pm to 8:30pm
starting Monday, August 15, 2016

Do you know a friend, or relative who struggles with anger? You may not have to look any further than your own mirror. We all know what anger is, and we have all felt it. We all get angry sometimes, but anger, when it is not controlled and managed properly, it gets out of control and turns destructive. It can lead to problems— problems in your personal relationships, at work, and in the overall quality of your life. We can do things we regret when we are angry. Ephesians 4:26 tells us, “In your anger do not sin. Do not let the sun go down while you are still angry.”

Come learn how to switch off your anger temperament so you don’t sin when you get angry, or go to bed still angry.

Our monthly anger management class meets with Dr. Bennett Annan, Ed.D., a National Anger Management Association (NAMA) certified anger management specialist, CAMS-I, and certified domestic violence specialist, CDVS-I. Classes are held on the first Wednesday of each month beginning August 3, 2016 from 7:00-9:00pm in room 11 of St. Rose of Lima School. For further information contact Jean Jenners at josephm34@sbcglobal.net or Wally Conway at wallyconway@century21.com

NUESTRO PADRE EN LA FE

La Carta a los Hebreos hoy canta un himno de alabanza a Abraham y a su fe, sobre la cual se fundan la religión judía, la cristiana y la mahometana. Abraham es llamado “padre” de la fe por más personas en el mundo que cualquier otro; numerosas como la arena de la playa o las estrellas del cielo. La Carta a los Hebreos nos dice que esta fe firme lo impulsó a obedecer el llamado de Dios cuando lo envió a buscar una tierra desconocida y le dijo que sería padre de una raza poderosa, aunque consideraba su matrimonio infecundo. Pero la fe de Abraham, nos dice el autor de la Carta a los Hebreos, le permitía poseer lo que esperaba y conocer lo que no podía ver. ¿Cuántas veces nos vemos en simples sucesos cotidianos de nuestra vocación cristiana llamados a un sitio desconocido o enviados a hacer algo que no creemos poder hacer? ¡Qué afortunados somos por tener a nuestro padre Abraham como nuestro guía y ejemplo!

NEED: St. Rose of Lima Christian Services, The Simi Valley Knights of Columbus and St. Rose of Lima Parish & Grade School have been serving the poor, the needy and less fortunate in Simi Valley and surrounding communities for over 50 years. All the proceeds from our "Simi Valley Dream Cuisine" will help support this invaluable service to the less fortunate in Simi Valley, Thousand Oaks, and Moorpark areas, as well as the students of St. Rose of Lima School.

This year our honoree is The Simi Valley Knights of Columbus Council 5803. We celebrate their 50th anniversary of service here at St. Rose of Lima and in Simi Valley. The Knights have given millions of dollars and countless volunteer hours to those most in need. Our very Special Guest this year will be Gary Sinise. The Dream Cuisine will be making a donation in the Knights name to the Gary Sinise Foundation. At the Gary Sinise Foundation, they serve our nation by honoring our defenders, veterans, first responders, their families, and those in need.

THE EVENT: Once again our festival will feature gourmet foods from 50 of the finest restaurants in Simi Valley, Moorpark, Thousand Oaks and San Fernando Valley; fine wine from California wineries; beer from well-known breweries; desserts from the finest bakeries and dessert establishments in the Southland. Returning this year will be concert and dancing provided by the very popular “Ronny & The Classics” who will be playing all your favorite oldies from the 50’s through 80’s. The evening will also include a fabulous silent auction and a large opportunity drawing with top prize of $10,000!

EVENT TICKETS: $60 per person or $600 for reserved table of 10. Tickets may be purchased online at www.svdream.com

There are a very limited number of VIP Gold and Silver Tables of 10 available.

A gold table is $1,000 and includes a special VIP reception an hour prior to the event. It also includes a front row table along with personal waiter, wine bottle service and a bottle of your favorite liquor and mixer at your table.

A silver table is $800 and it gives you second row table seating along with personal wait service. It includes bottles of wine of your choice and a bottle of your favorite liquor and mixer at your table.

To order these Gold and Silver tables, contact event chairman Cliff Wirtz at 805-208-8970.
